Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Briefly describe the Organization's mission or most significant activities:

To raise and expend funds in support of the mission of the Alabama Educational Television Commission (AETC) whose nine public television stations and one FM public radio station are licensed to the State of Alabama by the Federal Communications Commission. The funds raised by the AETFA supplement the budget of the AETC which receives annual appropriations from the Alabama State Education Trust Fund. Together the AETFA and the AETC operate and do business as Alabama Public Television under the brand name of APT which is widely recognized throughout the state as well as nationally.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Briefly describe the organization's mission:

To provide funding support for APT and therefore it fully embraces the stated mission of APT as follows:
"Each of us is born with a natural desire to learn. We seek to explore our world and to understand life and the people around us. Alabama Public Television is a center of discovery for people of all ages. We motivate children to learn, empower students and teachers to succeed, and provide a lifelong path to knowledge."

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	The earnings from restricted endowment funds are intended to be used to directly support the programmatic services of APT including purchasing equipment needed for local production efforts but not for administrative or overhead expenses Some of the endowment funds are restricted by the donor to be used for specific programmatic purposes and these restrictions are documented and adhered to The AETFA has also established quasi endowments for investing and spending sizable donations that come to the AETFA as unrestricted The intention is for the earnings to be spent directly for the programmatic services of APT The principle can only be spent upon the recommendation of the Executive Director for a specific purpose and approved by majority vote of the Board The AETFA adopted an investment and spending policy in 2002 for its endowments in which an investment consultant was employed to invest the funds in accordance with an asset allocation plan approved by the AETFA Investment Committee The spending policy provides a methodology for the amount of earnings that can be spent This methodology averages out the highs and lows of the stock market over 16 rolling quarters Only 50% of this amount can then be spent after adjusting for inflation The intention is to preserve endowment principle at current dollar values and to grow the principal at a modest rate while allowing a portion of the earnings to support the intended or designated programmatic services

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 10		The information contained in the AETFA Form 990 is prepared jointly by the organization's Senior Accountant and CFO and provided to an independent tax preparer. Upon receipt of the completed Form 990 from the preparer, it is reviewed by the Senior Accountant and CFO for completeness, accuracy and continuity. It is then forwarded to the Executive Director for final review and approval. Once it is approved by the Executive Director, the CFO signs the Form 990. The return is then provided to the Board of Directors and filed with the IRS.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The employees of the AETFA have password access to an employee intranet site that has an on-line employee guide that contains the conflict of interest policy. New employees are required to review all organizational policies in the employee guide within two weeks of employment and sign a statement that they have reviewed and understand these policies. All current employees are required to review the employee guide annually in January of each year and sign a statement that they have done so. The Board of Directors adopted the conflict of interest policy by majority vote and is periodically provided a hard copy of the policy in their board materials. New board members receive a hard copy of the policy in their board books provided immediately upon their appointments. The Board also adopted a confidential reporting system (more popularly known as a whistle-blower policy) available to all employees which is described in detail in the employee guide. This system provides a toll-free number for employees to call if they suspect any impropriety by managers and executives of the company in the form of misuse of company assets or that of other employees that they may feel have not been addressed appropriately. The phone call can be anonymous and goes to a third party provider that takes the information and then relays it directly to a Board member who has accepted responsibility for handling such employee concerns. It is then the responsibility of that Board member to take appropriate action depending on the nature of the concern. Since the implementation of the confidential reporting system in 2007, no complaints or concerns have been received.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		Compensation for officers and key employees is done in accordance with the State of Alabama Personnel rules in order to be consistent with the process followed by all employees of AETC. However, this is not mandated by the State for AETFA. The AETFA chooses to follow the same rules so that there is one process for all employees that are consistent, fair and equitable. Therefore, all officers and key employees receive a six-month and an annual performance review by their immediate supervisor that has been previously reviewed and approved by a reviewing officer. The performance review is documented on a standardized form and key tasks are rated on the annual review. Based on the final score, the employee may receive a merit increase within the range allowable by the State of Alabama. When the State provides AETC employees with a cost of living raise, the same percentage increase is provided to AETFA employees, including officers and key employees.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The AETFA is a public corporation and is therefore subject to the Alabama Open Records Act of 1915. All documents of the corporation must be made available to any member of the public requesting to see them. The requestor may physically examine these documents during regular office hours at the corporate headquarters located in Birmingham, Alabama. Reasonable advance notice is required in order for staff to have sufficient time to pull the requested documents from the public file maintained by APT and to reserve space for the requestor to conduct their examination.
