New Mexico Asset Consortium

Assets are resources and capacities that enable us to achieve social mobility and economic security. Based on the belief that public policy should invest in the assets of all households, we have combined two Federal Grants, EITC and IDA to form a statewide consortium that includes other IDA providers in the state in a community of practice, and two statewide partners, Tax Help New Mexico and the New Mexico

Financial Literacy Project. The Consortium is structured, funded and operated to:

A-help low income people realize their dreams, ambitions by assisting them with the development of financial skills, building or rebuilding their credit and development of an effective plan to purchase and maintain an asset;

B-serve as a model for effective community engagement and organizational collaboration;

C-create effective public-private partnerships;

D-impact public policy, and

E-bridge the chasm of race and class in communities

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

NMISSI, New Mexico Integrates Services In Schools Initiative

Funding from the NM Community Foundation targeted to 5 middle schools that utilizes and integrated approach to provision of health services, out of school educational opportunities and family supports. CANM is providing the Family support system to three of the schools, asset building strategies to all of the schools, and participating in the policy, advocacy and leveraging leadership team.

VISION-Children will graduate high school prepared to succeed in higher education or in a job that pays a living wage, holds potential for growth and advancement, and provides benefits.

GOAL-The integrated services model will surround students with the social, emotional, financial and health resources required for them to fully access the educational opportunities available, and achieve better outcomes.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service Accomplishments

ENERGY ADVOCACY

The energy burden that low income people bear, combined with the massive economic change that will result from the depletion of fossil fuels compel us to lead in this arena. Thus, we are developing the New Mexico Energy Trust Fund which will provide the values and financial framework for:

1. Leadership for a new energy economy that will at once provide New Mexico with clean, reliable, new sources of energy, with business and community development opportunities, and good paying jobs in rural New Mexico where they are most needed.
2. Planning, demonstrations and policies that make energy efficiency in low income housing (rehab and new builds) a requirement.
3. Research and development that demonstrate the effectiveness of suing renewables in our state.
4. Advocacy with energy providers, the PRC, and legislators that secures an affordable, sustainable commodity to low income consumers.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder

Community Action New Mexico has member agencies, and the board of directors are composed of the executive directors of each of the designated Community Action Agencies of New Mexico.
