Bylaw Amendment I

The Board of Directors amends Article II, Section 2 of the Organization bylaws to read as follows:

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. The initial directors shall be the persons named in the Certificate of Incorporation. A Director shall hold office serve until the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that any Director elected to fill an unexpired term (whether resulting from death, resignation or removal or created by an increase in the number of Directors) shall hold office until the next election of Directors. After an original one-year term, Directors may be elected to any number of consecutive two-year terms. To become a Director, a person shall be nominated by a then existing Director and elected by a majority of the Board.

(This amendment changes the term duration to include an initial one-year term for new Directors when elected, but states that after the first year, Director terms are two-years for any number of renewable terms.)

Bylaw Amendment II

The Board of Directors amends Article II, Section 6 of the Organization bylaws to read as follows:

Section 6. Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board shall be held in September of each year at a time and place fixed by the Board.

(This amendment changes the annual meeting month from "March" to "September" so that it falls at the end of one fiscal year and near the beginning of the next.)

Bylaw Amendment III

The Board of Directors amends Article II, Section 7 of the Organization bylaws to read as follows:

Section 7. Notice of Meetings. Notice of the time and place of each regular or special meeting of the Board, together with a written agenda stating all matters upon which action is proposed to be taken and to the extent possible, copies of all documents on which action is proposed to be taken, shall be delivered to each Director at his or her residence or usual place of business (or at such other address as he or she may have designated in a written request filed with the Secretary), via electronic mail or post at least seven days before the day on which the meeting is to be held; provided, however, that notice of special meetings to discuss matters requiring prompt action may be sent to him or her at such address by electronic mail, facsimile or given personally or by telephone no less than forty-eight hours before the time at which such meeting is to be held, unless the meeting must be held within forty-eight hours. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director who submits a signed waiver of notice whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him or her. No notice need be given of any adjourned meeting.

(This amendment changes the means by which Board of Directors materials should be distributed and delivered from the previous language stating "shall be mailed to each Director, postage prepaid," to more flexible language including electronic mail.)
