Intended uses of endowment funds	Schedule D Page 2 Part V Line 4	Temporarily restricted net assets are available to support the Society's support services subject to certain donor-imposed restrictions. The most significant component of the balance of temporarily restricted net assets represents realized and unrealized appreciation earned on permanently restricted net assets which are classified as temporarily restricted until used for unrestricted or restricted purposes. Certain permanently restricted net assets are restricted to investment in perpetuity, with interest and dividend income available for unrestricted use. Subject to the recently enacted Massachusetts law the Uniform Prudent management of Institutional Funds Act ("UPMIFA") the principal may be spent given a good-faith determination that such spending is prudent.
