Section 10. Membership Cards. An identity card (known as a membership card) showing the class of membership shall be issued to each member of this corporation

Section 11. Dues From the dues paid by each member shall be paid the dues of California Farm Bureau Federation

Section 12. Assessments. No assessments shall be levied by this corporation, but the County Farm Bureau Rural Health Department may establish such dues and committees may receive such contributions as may be approved by the board of directors All such funds shall be the property of this corporation The department or committee receiving such funds shall make recommendations for their use

Section 13. Termination of Membership.
a The membership of any member shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following events

(1) Resignation of the member, but resignation shall not relieve the member of any obligation to the corporation

(2) Expiration of the membership year, unless application is made for membership and dues are paid for the succeeding membership year within the time and on the terms set by the board of directors of this corporation

(3) Expulsion pursuant to subsection b, below

b Before a member may be expelled, the following procedure shall be followed pursuant to section 7341 of the California Corporation Code

(1) Upon determination by the president or the board of directors that reasonable cause exists for consideration of expulsion of a member, notice shall be given to such member, personally or by first class mail addressed to the most recent address of the member as shown on the corporation's records, setting forth the reasons expulsion is to be considered The notice shall be given or mailed at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the meeting of the board of directors to consider the expulsion, and shall state the time and place of the meeting and notify the member of his right to be heard

(2) The member shall be permitted to be heard personally or in writing before action is taken by the board of directors upon the expulsion question The member may also present statements of others, orally or in writing, on his behalf

(3) Following the hearing, the board of directors shall decide whether or not the member has engaged in conduct seriously prejudicial to the interests of the corporation and should be expelled The decision of the board of directors shall be final, and shall be effective five days after the decision

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of members shall be held at any place designated by the board of directors In the absence of designation of a place for meeting, a meeting of members shall be held at the principle office of this corporation

Section 2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of members shall be held during the month of February of each year at a date and time fixed by the board of directors

Section 3. Special Meetings Special meetings of members may be called by the board of directors, the president, or five (5) percent or more of the voting members If a special meeting is called by the president or by such members, the request shall be made in writing specifying the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted Special meetings shall be held not less than thirty-five (35) nor more than ninety (90) days after receipt of the request If the notice is not given within 20 days after receipt of the request, the president or members requesting the meeting may give the notice Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting, fixing, or affecting the time at which a meeting of members may be held when the meeting is called by the board of directors

a A written notice of every meeting of members shall be given to each voting member not less than twenty (20) nor more than ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting

The notice shall state the place, date and time of the meeting, the names of all those who are nominees for director at the time the notice is given, any matters which the board of directors intends to present for action by the members, and the general nature of any other business to be transacted No business shall be transacted which is not described in the notice-, except that matters not described in the notice may be raised and voted upon at a regular meeting of members attended by at least one-third of the voting members

b Notice of meetings of members shall be given by mail, electronic transmission, or any other means of written communication allowed by law, addressed to a member at the address of such member appearing on the books of the corporation or given to the corporation for the purpose of notice

Section 5. Quorum. Twenty-five (25) voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of members If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the voting power represented at the meeting, entitled to vote, and voting on any matter shall be the act of the members unless the vote by a greater number is required by the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law or the articles or bylaws

a Eligibility to Vote Persons entitled to vote at any meeting of members shall be limited to voting members in good standing as of the record date determined under Section 7 or 8 of this article

b Manner of casting votes Voting shall be by voice or show of hands, unless a written ballot is demanded by any voting member before the voting begins

Section 7. Record Date Determined by Board For purposes of determining the voting members entitled to notice of any meeting, entitled to vote at any meeting, entitled to vote by written ballot, or entitled to exercise any right with respect to any lawful action, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a record date The record date so fixed a For notice of a meeting shall not be more than 90 or less than 20 days before the date of the meeting, b For voting at a meeting shall not be more than 60 days before the date of the meeting,

c For voting by written ballot shall not be more than 60 days before the day on which the first written ballot is mailed or solicited, and

d For any other action shall not be more than 60 days before that action

Section 8. Record Date Not Determined by Board If not otherwise fixed by the board of directors under Section 7 of this article, the record date for determining the voting members entitled to a Receive notice of and to vote at a meeting of members shall be the business day before the day on which notice of the meeting is given,

b Vote by written ballot shall be the day on which the first written ballot is mailed or solicited,

c Exercise any right with respect to any other lawful action shall be the date on which the board of directors adopts the resolution relating to that action, or the 60th day before the date of that action, whichever is later

Section 9. Members of Record For purposes of Sections 7 and 8 of this article, a person holding a voting membership at the close of business on the record date shall be a member of record

Section 10. Proxies. Voting in all instances must be in person and not by proxy, except the vote of a corporation, partnership or other entity may be cast by an authorized representative satisfactory to the board of directors of this corporation

COUNTY DISTRICTS

Section 1. County Districts For the purpose of election of directors pursuant to Article VIII, Section 2, the county shall be divided into geographic districts as specified in Exhibit A appended to these bylaws The number of the districts, the territory comprising each and the number of directors to which each district shall be entitled, shall be as follows

One	Chico	6
Two	Paradise-Pentz-Themalito	4
Three	Durham-Richvale	7
Four	Oroville-Bangor-Honcut	4
Five	Biggs-Gridley	6

If one or more seats apportioned to a district cannot be filled by qualified and willing persons who reside or farm in that district, then qualified persons who do not reside or farm in that district may instead serve as directors at large as long as qualified persons who reside or farm in the district occupy a majority of the district's seats

Section 2. Amendments The number of districts and the number of directors to which each district shall be entitled may be increased or reduced, and the district descriptions may be modified, by amendment to these bylaws in conformance with Article XVIII

Section 1. Nominating Committee. Not later than ninety (90) days prior to the annual meeting of members, the president shall appoint a nominating committee composed of at least one voting member from each district for the purpose of proposing directors for each district as specified in Article V, Section 1 The nominating committee shall make its report to the president at least sixty (60) days prior to the annual meeting

Section 2. Publication of Nomination Committee Report The president shall cause the report of the nominating committee to be published to all voting members within five (5) days of receipt of the report, but in no event less than forty-five (45) days prior to the annual meeting

Section 3. Nominations by Voting Members By delivering to the president or secretary a written petition signed by the required number of voting members and countersigned by the nominee to indicate a willingness to serve, voting members representing two (2) percent of the voting membership may nominate candidates at any time up to thirty (30) days before the annual meeting of members, on which date the nominations shall close

Section 4. Qualification of Nominees. Each nominee shall ~~be a bona fide farmer as defined~~ meet the qualifications for directors as specified in Article VII, and shall reside or farm in the district for which he is nominated The board of directors may, as a condition of nomination, require each nominee to execute a certification that the nominee meets these requirements and shall, if elected, abide by the rules and guidelines applicable to directors of this corporation

Section 5. When Election Not Required If after the close of nominations the number of people nominated is not more than the number to be elected to any office, the president shall declare that those nominated and qualified have elected without further action, and announce such election at the annual meeting

Section 6 Election Required If after the close of nominations the number of qualified candidates exceeds the number to be elected for an office, an election for each such office shall be conducted at the annual meeting of members All candidates shall have a reasonable opportunity to solicit votes, and all voting members shall have a reasonable opportunity to choose among candidates The election shall be conducted as follows

a A ballot shall be distributed to each voting member of record attending the annual meeting The ballot shall list by district and in alphabetic order by surname the name of each candidate and indicate whether the candidate was nominated by the nominating committee or by petition

b The president shall appoint three voting members as inspectors of election After the close of voting, the inspectors shall count and record the votes cast on the ballots for each candidate The inspectors' majority vote shall resolve any question of validity of any ballot

c After they have counted all of the votes, the inspectors shall report the results to the president, who shall announce the results at the annual meeting of members

Section 7. Assumption of Office. Directors elected shall assume office at the end of the annual meeting of members for a term of two years, or until their successors are elected and qualified

LEADERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

The president, every vice-president, every director, every state delegate and alternate delegate shall be a voting member of this corporation and either a Derive a substantial portion of his or her gross income from farming operations, including as an owner, lessor, lessee, manager, officer, or substantial shareholder of a corporate entity, in California in the year when elected or during the five-year period before the election, or b Have his or her principal occupation in the farming industry in California in the year when elected

Despite the foregoing, only one state delegate may be a person who is a voting member of this corporation and meets only the qualification set forth in subsection b of this section

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers Subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and any limitations in the articles of incorporation and these Bylaws, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the board of directors Each director shall perform the duties of director, including duties as a member of any committee of the board of which the director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such director believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position under similar circumstances

Section 2. Number of Directors. The number of directors with the power to vote shall be 33, who shall be the president, the first vice-president, the second vice-president, the third vice-president, the treasurer, past president and the directors elected by district as provided in Article V All other persons will serve in an advisory capacity

Section 3. Resignations. Any director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the president, the secretary, or the board of directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be elected or appointed to take office when the resignation becomes effective

Section 4. Vacancy for Absence In addition to any other event or reason specified in these bylaws or in the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law and other applicable laws causing or warranting the removal of a director or a declaration of vacancy on the board of directors the board of directors may declare vacant the office of a director who fails to attend two or more consecutive meetings, without good and sufficient reason as determined by the board of directors

Section 5. Filling Vacancies A vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by a person elected by a majority vote of the directors then in office Nominations of persons to fill the vacancy shall be made by a vote of the Executive Committee and brought forward as a recommendation by an Executive Committee member at a board meeting at which a quorum was present when the meeting started Written notice of the candidates' names shall be given to each director at least 14 days before the meeting at which the directors may elect by secret ballot one of them to fill the vacancy

Section 6. Place of Meetings Meetings of the board of directors may be held at any place that has been designated from time to time by the board of directors In the absence of such designation, meeting shall be held at the principle office of the corporation Any meeting may be held by conference telephone or similar communication equipment, so long as all directors participating in the meeting can hear one another, and all such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting

Section 7. Organizational Meeting. Each January the board of directors shall hold an organizational meeting to elect the President, the First Vice-President, the Second Vice-President, the Third Vice-President, Treasurer, and the transaction of other business Notice of this meeting shall not be required Those offices elected shall assume their position at the end of the Annual Meeting of Members

Section 8. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held monthly without call at such time as shall from time to time be fixed by the board of directors Such meetings may be held without notice

a Special meetings of the board of directors for any purpose may be called at any time by the president or by any twenty-six (26) directors

b Notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be given to each director by one of the following methods (1) written notice by personal delivery, (2) written notice by first class mail, (3) written notice by electronic transmission, or (4) oral notice in person or by telephone Notices given by first class mail shall be mailed at least four (4) days prior to the meeting Notices by personal delivery, electronic transmission, or telephone shall be given at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting The notices need not specify the purpose of the meeting

. Section 10. Quorum A majority of the directors then in office, or one-fifth of the authorized number of directors, whichever is greater, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board of directors Every action taken or decision made by a majority of the directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board, subject to any more-stringent provision of these bylaws A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, despite the withdrawal of directors, as long as any action taken or decision made is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place

Section 11. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board, individually or collectively, consent in writing to that action Such written consents shall be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the board

Section 12. Fees and Expenses. Directors shall receive no compensation for their services, but may receive such reasonable reimbursement of expenses as may be authorized by resolution of the board of directors

Section 13. Director Dissent Any member of the board of directors who realizes he or she cannot support a policy adopted by the majority of the board of directors should tell the board of directors his/her dissent, ideally at the time the policy is adopted If he/she is unable to do so at the time, the dissenting director should notify the president at the earliest convenient time

If the dissenting director feels the need to make public statements regarding his or her counter position, that director should give serious consideration to resigning from the board of directors, in which case the board of directors would accept the resignation without prejudice If the board member does not resign, he or she must not mention his/her membership in Farm Bureau when taking a position counter to the official policy

Board members who do not follow this procedure will be subject to censure from the board of directors Should that be made necessary, the facts in the case would be presented to the board at a regular meeting The offending member would be permitted to attend After a factual presentation, the board of directors could censure and/or remove the member by a simple majority vote of those present
