Line No.

Explain below how each activity for which income is reported in column (e) of Part XVI-A contributed importantly to the accomplishment of the foundation's exempt purposes (other than by providing funds for such purposes) (See page 28 of the instructions)

3 & 4

When contributions are received, the funds retained in the foundation are invested. The earnings are used to provide additional charitable contributions.

5b

The foundation has received parcels of real estate as contributions in previous years. The properties are presently being held as investments. The income received on the leases are used to provide funds from which the foundation can make additional charitable contributions.

8

The foundation received listed securities and land as contributions. These items were held for investment and the earnings were used to provide charitable contributions. The proceeds from these sales have or will be used to make additional charitable contributions.
