Part IV, Supplemental Information		The Partnership coordinates a group of non-profit organizations in central Ohio which, as a group, spends the amounts listed in Part II-B in engaging representation at the national level. The Partnership enters into the contract on behalf of the group, with the organization selected to represent the group, collects on behalf of the group from each group member its share of such amounts, and makes payment on behalf of the group of such amounts to such representing organizations. The entire amount contributed by the group is reported here. The partnership's share of such amounts as a member of the group is $15,000. The Partnership works with public officials on behalf of central Ohio, for projects of economic benefit to the region. The Partnership meets with elected officials to provide business input on various central Ohio projects and issues and works collaboratively with other central Ohio groups to promote Columbus.
