Part III, Line 4		Collection includes late 18th centry artifacts of rural Vermont agrarian culture that assist in research, education, and demonstration of rural life and values of the time as well as conservation and sustainable land use
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Foundation adopted the new provisions of ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes (formerly FIN 48). When tax returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. Tax positions taken are not offset or aggregated with other positions.
