		Uncertainty in Income Taxes The Organization adopted the standards for Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes which require the Organization to report any uncertain tax positions, related interest and penalties, and to adjust its financial statements for the impact thereof. As of December 31, 2009, the Organization determined that it had no tax positions that did not meet the "more likely than not" threshold of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. The Organization files income tax and information returns in the United States (Federal) and Massachusetts (state) jurisdictions. These returns are generally subject to examination by tax authorities for the last three years.
