| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15 | | Compensation & Benefit Procedures. The Human Resources Division of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America establishes standard position classification criteria, employee evaluation methods, and recommended salary charts for commissioned professionals (career Scouters). Salary ranges & benefits are reviewed by independent consultants who issue an opinion on the fairness of the compensation program. At the beginning of the year, in consultation with their staff leader, each Scouting professional establishes specific criteria and numerical measurements ("critical achievements") upon which their performance will be evaluated throughout the year. Employees are reviewed periodically throughout the year to assess their performance. At year end a final evaluation is conducted. In addition to the numerical criteria, employee mode (how they do their job) may affect the final review. Salary increases are based on employee performance rating and where they fall within the salary range for their position classification. There are no cost of living salary adjustments in the Boy Scouts of America. Salary increases for council staff are determined by the Scout Executive using the above method and are subject to budget constraints. There is a volunteer Compensation & Benefits Committee appointed by the Council President that includes the President, Treasurer and other members of the Board. The Compensation & Benefits Committee reviews the recommended staff salary increases as presented by the Scout Executive. This committee, in consultation with the Northeast Region, Boy Scouts of America, determines the Scout Executive's salary increase, if any, in the manner described above. The Narragansett Council has established a similar system for administrative employees of the council. All salaries fall within the recommended guidelines. Benefit programs are administered by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America. The Narragansett Council has adopted the standard BSA benefit programs which all local councils are required to use. |
