Facts And Circumstances Test
The Rhode Island Boy Scouts meet the 10% facts and circumstance test and therefore is eligible as a public organization. Per the public support test within Part II of Schedule A, the Organization's public support percentage for 2009 and 2008 was 17.26% and 16.64%, respectively. Consequently the 10% public support requirement is met. In addition, the Organization meets the attraction of public support requirement for the following reasons: A large portion of the Organization's income in 2009 came from investment activity from endowment funds which were initially contributed by the general public. This meets one of the additional public support factors. Rhode Island Boy Scouts also maintains a representative governing body that represents the broad interests of the public.
