Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The Association is a nonprofit corporation with members. Any person of good moral character who is in sympathy with its purpose may become a member of the Association. All members of the Association 18 years and older may vote on Association matters.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		All of the Association's members 18 years and older have the right to nominate representatives to the Board of Directors and to vote on the election of such Directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b		Upon the written request by five percent of the Association's members, a special meeting of the Association may be held to transact business as specified in the request for the meeting.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The initial draft of Form 990 is reviewed in detail by the Association's CFO. After completion of any revisions, it is presented to the Finance Committee of the Association for approval. The final draft of the return is emailed to members of the Board of Directors prior to filing for their review.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The Executive Compensation Committee is responsible for ensuring that excess benefit transactions are not provided by the Association, directly or indirectly to, or for the use of, any disqualified person. A disqualified person is any member of the board of directors and key employees. They determine who is considered a disqualified person, require completion of the conflict of interest policy form and review, and summarize the results of all business transactions regardless of the dollar amount. An annual summary of activity is provided to the Board of Directors. Any board member that engages in a related business transaction with the Association must abstain from any vote regarding such transaction.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The Executive Compensation Committee is comprised of 5 or 6 volunteer members that may include independent members of the Board of Directors. On an annual basis, this committee determines the disqualified persons of the organization, reviews comparable compensation for organizations in similar fields, of comparable size and funding, and recommends the total compensation and benefits package for these individuals. The Association's Board of Directors has final approval of the recommendation.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The Association makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and audit report available by written request including a link on the Association's website.
Form 990, Part XI, line 2c		The Association's procedures have not changed from prior years.
