Part XI, Line 8	Part XI, Line 8 Other Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances	Change in unrealized appreciation of investments $137338
Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	CCT invested the cash proceeds of the Gloeckner bequest, which are unrestricted by the donor, at The Community Foundation of Northwest Connecticut, Inc. (the Foundation). The Board established four agency funds at the Foundation operating, stewardship, reserve and endowment. The stewardship category includes several subfunds. Board designations for the funds are included in the agreement with the Foundation. CCT may add to existing funds and create new subfunds. The Foundation invests all funds following the guidelines of the Foundation's investment policy. The Foundation provides periodic reporting for each of the investment funds and subfunds separately identified by CCT. Each fund held by The Community Foundation of Northwest Connecticut is allocated investment income based on units in the Foundation's commingled investment pool. Based on the Foundation's most recent financial reports, the pool is invested approximately 60% in equities and 40% in fixed income and short-term investments. Both principal and income may be used for purposes designated by the CCT Board of Directors. CCT's Board may authorize the expenditure of income by a simple majority vote at a Board meeting. Expenditures of principal are intended to be limited to exceptional circumstances and require the approval of three-fourths of the entire Board. CCT may transfer funds to another qualified charitable organization or to CCT, itself, for investment management, also requiring the approval of three-fourths of the entire Board, as well as the consent of the Board of Directors of the Foundation.
Part II, Line 9	Part II, Line 9 Organization Reporting of conservation easements	Part II, #9 - The Trust reports conservation easements in a note to the financial statements "Note 5 - Land Held by Cornwall Conservation Trust, Inc. [Followed by listing of 18 properties owned by the Trust.] Conservation easements within the Town of Cornwall, which are not recorded as assets, totaled approximately 620 and 541 acres at December 31, 2009 and 2008 "Part II, #5 CCT'S CONSERVATION EASEMENTS POLICY We do not accept easements (or gifts of land) without careful, prior consideration. Our Conservation Committee is specifically charged with screening proposals from landowners. All easements must pass two tests -- our own land and resource evaluation requirements (based on a proprietary check-list) and IRS requirements. The Board of Directors reviews each proposal at least twice. Initially to make sure the above requirements are fully met and again prior to the closing when documentation has been checked for timeliness and acceptability. Only then is an easement formally agreed by Board vote. We engage outside legal counsel to insure the easement language is satisfactory. As for monitoring, each easement has one or more Board members and/or volunteers assigned as steward(s). The stewards are expected to visit the landowners and their properties at least once a year and to complete a copy of our Easement Monitoring Report form, which is then placed in file at our office. To date there have been no significant infractions of easement terms that we know of. Were we to discover such, we would insist the landowner(s) desist and/or remove the infringement(s), and if truly necessary take legal action. Our existing easements are covered by monetary "endowments" to help defray monitoring and/or potential future legal costs. Sch. D - Part XI, #5, Part XII, #2b, Part XIII, #2a - Donated Services - The Cornwall Conservation Trust (CCT) receives substantial donated services from officers, Board members and volunteers. These services are not recorded as revenues and expenses in the financial statements. The organization receives the free use of town facilities for meetings. Directors contribute many all out-of-pocket costs of fundraising. During 2009, volunteers donated a substantial number of hours cutting and creating trails in CCT's Rattlesnake Road property. Several individuals provide volunteer haying of CCT's fields. CCT includes the value of land donated to the conservation trust in contributions and as assets on the balance sheet. CCT values such assets based on appraisals and expenditures for transaction costs.
