|                                        |                  | The League adopted the new accounting for uncertainty in income taxes guidance on January 1, 2009. The adoption of that guidance did not result in the recognition of any unrecognized tax benefits and the League has no unrecognized tax benefits at December 31, 2009. The League's U.S. Federal and state information returns prior to calendar year 2006 are closed and management continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law and new authoritative rulings. If the League has unrelated business income taxes, the League will recognize interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions as part of the income tax provision and include accrued interest and penalties with the related tax liability in the statements of financial position. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c |                   | When requested by the Ethics and Elections Committee and not less frequently than once a year, each Board Member shall promptly submit a statement to the Committee identifying all business and other affiliations in which the Board Member has a financial interest as defined in the organization's By-Laws. In addition, a Board Member shall promptly disclose to the Ethics and Elections Committee any matter that could reasonably be considered to be a "financial benefit" to such Board Member, whether or not the Board Member believes a conflict exists. After disclosure of the potential conflict of interest, the disinterested members of the Ethics and Elections Committee shall determine whether a conflict of interest exists or continuing and pervasive conflict of interest exists. Neither the Board nor any Committee of the Board shall vote upon any proposed matter, transaction, contract, or arrangement in connection with which an actual or possible conflict of interest has been disclosed by a Board Member until such time as the Ethics and Elections Committee has addressed the actual or possible conflict of interest. Also, each Board Member shall annually sign a statement which affirms that such person (i) Has received a copy of the current conflict of interest policy, (ii) Has read and understands the policy, (iii) Has agreed to comply with the policy, and (iv) Understands that the Association is a non-profit organization and that in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  |                   | A) The compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is determined by the Board of Directors based on a recommendation of the Administration and Finance Committee. The A&F Committee's recommendation is based on the performance of the incumbent in comparison to a set of goals and objectives for the organization and the individual. B) The initial base compensation of the other staff officers is determined by the Chief Executive Officer partially on information of comparable organizations and the annual adjustment, if any, is based on the individual performance of the officer.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
