Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		Ruby Weston Manor has its form 990 prepared by an outside accounting firm and has established the following review process to ensure that the information reported is complete and accurate. When the Form 990 has been prepared, reviewed by management and is ready to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service, it is electronically sent to the board members of the organization for any comments. Any comments are then grouped, summarized and provided to the outside accountants. Each issue is documented and addressed until the return is finalized and approved for filing.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12		The organization is aware of the need for a conflict of interest policy, and is in the process of developing one.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The compensation paid to Ruby Weston is determined based upon job performance and a comparison with compensation paid to top management officials by similar not-for-profit organizations in the NYC metropolitan area. Ruby Weston determines the salaries of key employees of the Nursing Home in a similar fashion; their performance is evaluated, the amount of value they bring to the organization is considered, the financial health of the organization is reviewed, and compensation guidelines for similar work in the non-profit field are considered.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18		The Organization's Form 990 is available for inspection during regular business hours and also on the Guidestar website.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The Organization makes its governing documents, articles of incorporation, and financial statements available to the public upon request. The Organization also files an annual cost report with the New York State Department of Health, which contains financial statements and related note disclosures, which is available to the public upon request.
