2009 Camargo Foundation Programs and Events

In 2009, the Camargo Foundation, the operations of which are based in Cassis, France, hosted residencies during two academic semesters for 24 Camargo Fellows, who are individual scholars, artists, composers and writers. This was the 38th consecutive year that the Foundation has welcomed Fellows in Cassis. The Foundation also continued a long tradition of hosting cultural events in its facilities for the local community.

Selection committees in each of the Foundation's four program areas chose the Fellows from 349 applications received via an on-line process. The committees met in New York City in March 2008 (to recommend the Spring 2009 Fellows and alternates) and in March 2009 (to recommend the Fall 2009 Fellows and alternates). They made their selections independently, without input from the Foundation board and staff, based on previous accomplishments of applicants, the description of the specific project on which they would work while at Camargo, and letters of recommendation. The Camargo board of trustees reviewed and ratified their choices.

Fellows came mainly from the United States, but also from other countries, and represented diverse but often related areas of expertise, thus creating opportunities for interdisciplinary exchange. They were on-site, as required, for most of the days of their residency except during French school holidays (some Fellows came with children, who must be above six years and be enrolled in local schools). While at Camargo, they had access to the Foundation library as well as to other resources available on-line. Foundation staff followed the Fellows' progress while they were resident at Camargo. Attendance at weekly project presentations by Fellows was mandatory, and the end of their residency, Fellows provided the Foundation with summaries of the progress they had made on the projects while at Camargo. These are posted online at camargofoundation.org.

The Foundation provided Fellows with guest speakers, access to cultural events, excursions, movie nights, and activities organized by colleagues and residents of Cassis.

It is a policy of the Foundation to make its facilities available on a selective basis to groups whose activities are consonant with the Foundation's mission. In 2009, for the 21st consecutive year, the Foundation hosted during the last weekend in April and the first weekend in May the annual book festival called Printemps du Livre in association with local authorities and the French Ministry of Culture. The Foundation welcomed over 400 people each afternoon in the outdoor theater on the Foundation grounds to participate in literary presentations and debates.

STATEMENT A

The Foundation hosted a number of events in 2009 either for the general public, or by invitation.
In May the Foundation held several events for the Cassis community to celebrate the arrival in the port of Cassis of the Coast Guard training vessel Eagle.
A concert on May 26 featured works by composer Fellows Patricia Alessandrini and David Chisholm.
In June Camargo hosted a poetry festival under the aegis of FACE, a nonprofit organization that works with the Cultural Services of the French Embassy in the United States to support projects in the arts. Four American poets worked with their translators at Camargo for five days in June and then presented their poems to the public (with translations in French) on two successive evenings in Camargo's Jerome Hill theater.
In November Camargo presented a poetry reading by Elena Sikeliades, a well-known American poet, sponsored by the French Centre national du livre as part of their annual festival called Les belles etrangères, which in 2009 featured American writers.
In December the Foundation showcased the work of its writers, composers, and visual artists in an evening open house. "The Red Scarf and the Black Briefcase", a narrative poem written at Camargo by Rick Hilles, a Fall 2009 creative writing Fellow, was read by Kimberly Jannarone, an academic Fellow and actress, accompanied at the piano by music composition Fellow Kate Soper. The audience then watched a video by Tomiko Jones, one of Camargo's two visual artists, and proceeded to Pang Chieg Hsu's studio to see his two paintings in a series called "Paper Money".

In October 2009, the Foundation re-opened its on-line system to applicants for the Fall 2010-Spring 2011 semesters for consideration by independent selection committees in March 2010.

CASSIS, FRANCE

To Apply

The Camargo Foundation is not currently accepting applications for our Fellowship program

If you are interested in applying for future fellowships, please revisit this page regularly for news of our next application period.

The Fall 2010 Semester will run from September 14 to December 9, 2010 and the Spring 2011 Semester from January 18 to April 14, 2011.

Thank you for your interest in the Camargo Foundation

Application Overview

The Camargo Foundation, located in Cassis, France, is an interdisciplinary and multicultural residential center for scholars pursuing studies in the humanities and social sciences related to French and francophone cultures as well as for composers, writers, and visual artists (painters, sculptors, photographers, filmmakers, video artists, and new media artists) pursuing creative projects.

The Foundation's campus includes twelve furnished apartments, a reference library, a music/conference room, an artist's studio with darkroom, a composer's studio, and a studio for either an artist or a composer. Residencies are one semester (either early-September to mid-December or mid-January to mid-April).

Conditions of the Fellowship:

- The Camargo fellowship is a residential grant. A $1,500 stipend is also available Fellows who need additional funds for living or research expenses should apply for them from other sources. Fellows may not accept gainful employment that coincides with their stay at Camargo. Fees for occasional lectures or participation in seminars are allowed.
- Spouses/adult partners and dependent minor children may accompany fellows for short stays or for the duration of the residency Because of physical arrangements at the Camargo Foundation, accompanying children must be at least six years old upon arrival, and enrolled in and attend school Only those whose names appear on the application form may be in residence.
- Fellows must actually be in residence at the Foundation. This stipulation does not preclude absences during weekends and recesses that coincide with those of the French schools in the Marseille-Aix-Cassis area. Frequent or prolonged absences are unacceptable
- The time in Cassis must be spent on the project proposed to and accepted by the selection committee, i e the project may not be substantially altered

STATEMENT B

without the approval of the committee

- Project discussions are held once a week (except during semester breaks) so each fellow has an opportunity to present the project s/he is working on to the group. The project discussion serves as a progress report A written report will be required at the end of the residency.
- Fellows are asked to give a copy of any completed work to the Camargo library. Any publication, exhibit, or performance resulting from the grant should give credit to the Foundation.

Applicants to the Camargo Foundation may include:

- Members of university and college faculties who wish to pursue special studies while on leave from their institutions;
- Independent scholars and professors emeriti working on specific projects,
- Teachers in secondary schools, public or private, benefiting from a leave of absence in order to work on some pedagogical or scholarly project;
- Graduate students whose academic residence and general requirements have been met and for whom a stay in France would be beneficial in completing the dissertation required for their degree;
- Composers, writers, and visual artists (painters, sculptors, photographers, video artists, filmmakers, and new media artists) with specific projects to complete.

Guidelines for applications:

- Academic projects must have a connection to France or Francophone cultures. Artistic projects do not have this requirement.
- Most projects are individual Collaborative projects are also welcome, but only one fellowship will be awarded to one individual per project
- The Camargo Foundation does not consider projects for film scripts Play scripts are welcome
- Applications (including projects, supporting materials and letters of reference) for academic fellowships are accepted in English or French Applications (including projects, supporting materials and letters of reference) for composition, creative writing, and visual arts fellowships are accepted in English only
- In the interests of the Camargo interdisciplinary, multicultural community, candidates must be able to communicate well in English A basic knowledge of French is also useful
- Research should be sufficiently advanced not to require resources unavailable in the Marseille-Cassis Aix region These requirements affirm the Foundation's identity and mission as a center for scholars and artists well into the writing/creating phases of their projects as opposed to a research facility.

The Online Application

Applications are now accepted online. The online application is comprised of 4 main sections

- Applicant's contact information
- Project information
- References
- Residency preferences

- Application materials

Each section should initially be completed in the order presented. Applicants can then return to any part of their application to make changes, if necessary When all information has been provided, the applicant must submit the application on the Submit page by clicking on the "submit now" button no later than the deadline of January 12

Applicants may choose a primary and a secondary category for the project, if applicable The primary category indicates what application materials are required Applicants who choose to indicate a secondary category should ensure that their project description, work samples, and references represent or address both disciplines as much as possible, so their application can be given proper consideration by the appropriate selection committees

Translation projects are welcome If the project is to translate and publish a translation of creative writing, then the applicant should select Creative Writing as the primary category If the project is to translate a scholarly work, then the applicant should select Academic as the primary category

Academic and independent scholars are asked to include one or two paragraphs in their project description locating their project conceptually and/or bibliographically in the context of the most important works available in the field They must also submit a one-page project bibliography with their application This bibliography should list the works that have informed their research A list of the applicant's own publications may be included in the CV

Candidates in composition, creative writing, and visual arts (painting, sculpting, photography, video arts, filmmaking, and new media arts) must submit samples of their work

While most supporting materials can be uploaded, scores, recordings, films and videos may be sent by postal mail

Applicants who mail hard copy materials in support of their application and wish them to be returned, must provide a self-addressed envelope and international postage vouchers for the appropriate amount An indication of current French postal rates by weight can be found here

The Camargo Foundation has four selection committees. academic, music composition, creative writing, and visual arts Committee members, some of whom are former fellows, are distinguished scholars, writers, editors, musicians, artists, and curators who normally serve six years. The Executive Director assists in their deliberations as a non-voting member. The selection of fellows is based only on an evaluation of the projects proposed and on each applicant's professional qualifications. However, final awards will necessarily be made according to the availability of space. Candidacy is open to qualified persons of all nationalities and on a non-discriminatory basis Committee choices are subject to ratification by the Board of Trustees First-time applicants are normally given preference over previous Camargo fellows Applications by former fellows are not considered sooner than three years after the residence.

Important Note· For non-European Union citizens, a visa is required for a stay of more than three months in France The processing of this visa may take a considerable amount of time Applicants who have been accepted for a residency and who are not members of the European Union should contact the French Embassy or Consulate in their area as soon as possible for information regarding visa requirements for residence in France
