The production of detailed engineering and architectural work for the creation of relevant drawings for this project, as well as revisions dictated by the Supreme Council of Antiquities. Finalization of tender documents, tendering and assessment of bids. Due to the remote location of the Monastery, travel and accommodation expenses were also required for the relevant personnel.

Prior to the anticipated construction, the entire contents of the Library will be moved to another secure area within the Monastery complex. A study for design modifications and improvements of the relocation area were commissioned and provided. In addition to the fees, all travel and accommodation expenses were paid out as well.

4b. The Printed Book Survey

This survey involved the recording of the condition of the oldest and rarest 1,000 books using a new methodology developed for this project. Specially trained conservators were brought to St. Catherine's from London for this assessment. In addition to their fees were equipment expenses for the establishment of a conservation workshop as well as for data processing. All travel and subsistence expenses were funded as well.

4c: Life and Fire Safety Project

To ensure the safety of the priceless contents of the world-renowned Library, a new state of the art Life and Fire Safety system is foreseen for the library building itself. In addition, design of a new power distribution network for the whole of the Monastery was commissioned. Drawings and a bill of quantities were prepared to enable tendering of the works. Travel and accommodation of the relevant engineers was provided for.
