Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

See Schedule O

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes No

If 'Yes,' describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes No

If 'Yes,' describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 1,011,342. including grants of $ 450,000.) (Revenue $)

The Foundation and mtvU launched the Peabody Award winning Half of Us campaign in 2006 to raise awareness about the prevalence of emotional disorders on college campuses, fight the stigma around mental illness and connect students with the appropriate resources to get help. More than 9 million students at more than 850 colleges are exposed to the campaign's three components: on-air PSAs and programming, an online resource center at www.halfofus.com and on-campus events.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 122,450. including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Ulifeline is an anonymous, confidential, online resource center where college students can be comfortable searching for the information they need and want regarding mental health and suicide prevention. The most recent version includes enhanced student features, a screening tool and a new component called Counseling Central built exclusively for college mental health and student affairs professionals. Currently, more than 1,500 colleges and universities participate in the Ulifeline network free of charge.

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 104,266. including grants of $ 140,000.) (Revenue $)

The Foundation has partnered with the American Psychiatric Foundation to undertake a student and parent outreach project to ensure a smooth, safe, and healthy transition for teenagers from high school to college, laying the groundwork for healthy and productive college years and beyond. The project includes research, a media campaign, and resource guides for parents and students.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O) See Schedule O

(Expenses $ 186,740. including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses 1,424,798.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The Jed Foundation works nationally to reduce the rate of suicide and the prevalence of emotional distress among college and university students. To achieve this end, the organization collaborates with the public and leaders in higher education, mental health, and research to produce and advance initiatives that: 1) Decrease the stigma surrounding emotional disorders and increase help-seeking in the college student population; 2) Increase understanding of the warning signs of suicide and the symptoms of emotional disorders among college students; 3) Build awareness of the prevalence of suicide and emotional disorders among college students; and 4) Strengthen campus mental health services, policies, and programs.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Other programs seek to further the Foundation's mission.

The Jed Foundation plans and executes a comprehensive communications program to help raise awareness of the importance of addressing emotional health issues and preventing suicide. This includes on and offline media outreach which resulted in over 50 million impressions during 2009. As part of this communications program, the Foundation maintains a comprehensive online resource center that houses news and articles related to mental illness and suicide prevention and gives parents, campus professionals, students and the general public access to important information for dealing with mental health concerns and getting help.

The Jed Foundation is committed to helping campuses best address the needs of at-risk students. As part of this effort, the Foundation launched a national initiative to provide free trainings for campus mental health professionals on recognizing and addressing suicide risk. Part of the initiative is the Assessing
