Margin Interest Expense Charged to Your Account. Margin interest expense charged to your account during 2009 is summarized and reported in this section of your Tax Information Statement. Margin interest expense, if characterized as a deductible investment interest expense and if paid during 2009, should be reported on IRS Form 1040, Schedule A, line 14. This amount may be subject to the limitations imposed on deducting investment interest expense. See IRS Form 4952 (Investment Interest Expense Deduction) for additional information.

IRS Form 1099-B—Proceeds from Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions

The amounts indicated in this section of your Tax Information Statement reflect proceeds from securities transactions such as sales, redemptions, tender offers, return of principal distributions, the option premium portion of reverse convertibles and bond maturities.

Box 2—Gross Proceeds (Less Commissions and Fees). Gross proceeds from transactions involving stocks, bonds and other debt obligations are reported in Box 2. These amounts do not reflect net profits and are net of transaction costs (for instance, commissions and fees). Report the gross proceeds from each transaction separately on IRS Form 1040, Schedule D (Capital Gains and Losses). This box does not include proceeds from regulated futures contracts.

Box 4—Federal Income Tax Withheld. Report federal income tax withheld (backup withholding) as a payment on IRS Form 1040 (U.S. Individual Income Tax Return), line 61. Federal income tax withheld is 28% of gross proceeds. See the Additional Information section of these instructions.

U.S. Treasury Bills. Proceeds from U.S. Treasury bill sales are reported in this section. The discount on Treasury bills maturing during 2009 is reported in the 1099-INT section. Refer to the 1099-INT section of these instructions for additional information.

Accrued Interest Received. Accrued interest received on notes and bonds sold between interest payments is not reported in the 1099-B section. It is reported on a settlement-date basis in the 1099-INT section of your Tax Information Statement.

Short Sales. We report short sales on a trade-date basis in the year in which the sales are executed, not the year in which they are covered. A short sale will be denoted with a symbol "I" in the 1099-B section of your Tax Information Statement. Consult your tax professional or IRS Publication 550 for information on reporting proceeds from short sales on your tax return.

Trade Date. Transactions are reported on a trade-date basis, therefore, your Tax Information Statement only includes transactions with a 2009 trade date. The date on the trust sale may be different from the date on your monthly statements for a trust sale because we are reporting the date the trust made the sale.

WHFET Reporting. If you held an interest in a unit investment trust (UIT), mortgage backed security, royalty trust, HOLDRIS trust or commodities trust, we are now required to report certain details regarding transactions for these securities on IRS Form 1099-B because these products are considered to be widely held fixed investment trusts (WHFETs). New IRS rules governing reporting for WHFETs require us to provide more detailed and comprehensive information than was previously required on 1099 forms in prior years, but does not impact the total amount of income or expenses that we report to you. Information reported to you for WHFITs on IRS Form 1099-B is generally reportable to you on IRS Form 1040, Schedule D. Please consult with your tax professional regarding the proper reporting of items of income and expense for WHFITs and widely held mortgage trusts (WHMTs). Please consult with your tax professional regarding the proper reporting of items of income and expense for WHFITs and widely held mortgage trusts (WHMTs).

Additional Written Statement. Please note that we are also required to furnish you with an additional Tax Information Statement by March 15, 2010. This information is reported in the Additional Written Statement included in your Tax Information Statement. You need this additional information to complete your tax return. The Additional Written Statement is provided only to you, and not to the IRS. It sets forth detailed information regarding income and expenses for WHFT's. Please refer to the Additional Written Statement provided and to the Tax Guide for other important information regarding WHFT's. You can view and print a copy of the Tax Guide at www.mytaxhandbook.com. An explanation of items reflected on your IRS Form 1099-B is provided below.

Trust Sale. A trust sale represents the total amount paid to a selling trust interest holder for the sale of a trust interest and should be reported on Schedule D of your IRS Form 1040. This includes principal payments that completely retire a debt instrument (other than a final scheduled principal payment) and pro rata partial principal prepayments. It does not include pro rata sales by non-mortgage widely held fixed investment trusts (NMWFFITs) to affect redemptions or assets received in any corporate reorganization.

Cost Basis Factor. Please use the Cost Basis Allocation Factor provided to allocate a portion of your cost basis in the WHFIT (in other words, what you paid for the WHFIT, less any reinvested dividend and/or capital gains distributions) to each sale or disposition in order to determine any attributable and reportable sales proceeds and realized gains or losses on Schedule D of IRS Form 1040.

Partnership Cash Distributions and Trust Distributions. We report cash distributions from partnerships and certain trusts in these sections of your Tax Information Statement. Accounts that held partnership and certain trust interests will receive their tax information directly from the partnership or trust on IRS Schedule K-1. Contact the partnership or trust directly if you do not receive this form.

Return of Principal Distributions. Generally, certain return of principal distributions on a bond is not reportable as taxable income, but reduces the tax basis of your bond. Consult with your tax professional for more detailed information.
