Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

The Rome Chamber Music Festival, Inc. is a New York not-for-profit corporation established to promote and advance the public perception and awareness of music in its cultural environment by organizing and promoting concerts and musical events and by furthering the education and performing experience of promising young music students. The primary focus of the organization's current activities is a two week festival that occurs each year. Outstanding musicians from the United States, Italy and elsewhere perform during the Festival and provide master classes to selected and highly promising students from the United States and Italy who are invited to study with these accomplished artists during the Festival and then to present their own concert during the Festival period.
