Form 990 - Organization's Mission or Most Significant Activities

ACP is a group committed to identifying & providing leadership on selected issues important to driving the economic development of Atlanta Georgia and for which their active involvement will make a major difference.

The ACP has a bias for action and is committed to accomplishing this mission in the most effective way possible. Accordingly, the ACP operates based on the following principles:

1. The ACP will focus principally on the City of Atlanta, but coordinate its activities with other organizations to ensure maximum impact for the region as a whole;
2. The ACP will focus on a limited number of issues critical to economic development;
3. The ACP will work through existing organizations to accomplish its goals whenever possible;
4. The ACP will address issues with analytical rigor, including the use of clear work plans, metrics, milestones and deadlines;
5. The ACP will make decisions through its Executive Committee, a members only body (no substitutes) consisting of Chief Executive Officers, or equivalent, from local business and civic institutions.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 3 - Management Delegated

Ahmann, Inc provides management services for Atlanta Committee for Progress.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Classes of Members or Stockholders

Members The ACP has 31 members, each of whom holds or has held an executive - level position in a corporation, non-profit organization, government or educational institution.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a - Election of Members and Their Rights

Each member of the Atlanta Committee for Progress also serves on the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11A - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

The Treasurer of the Board of Directors coordinates the preparation of the Form 990. At least 15 business days prior to the annual filing of the Form 990, the Treasurer delivers a complete draft Form 990 to each member of the ACP's Board of Directors. The Board members then have ten business days to review the draft Form 990 and submit comments or questions to the Treasurer. Upon the later of (i) the resolution of any reasonable comments and questions submitted by Board members within the ten business day time frame or (ii) the fifteenth business day following delivery of the draft to the ACP's Board members, the ACP shall file the Form 990. In the event that material changes are made to the draft of the Form 990 after the draft was distributed to the members of the ACP's Board, the Treasurer or Executive Director shall redistribute a revised draft to each member of the ACP's Board. Upon receiving a revised draft of the Form 990, the Board members shall have three business days to review such revised draft and submit comments and questions to the Treasurer. Upon the later of (i) the resolution of any reasonable comments and questions submitted by Board members within the three business day time frame or (ii) the fifth business day following delivery of the revised draft to the ACP's Board members, the ACP shall file the Form 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

The Chairman of the Board is responsible for monitoring all conflicts of interest that have been disclosed by Board members, committee members, employees and other representatives. In the event that there is a material development with respect to a conflict of interest, the Chairman of the Board is required to disclose such development to the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board also monitors proposed or ongoing transactions of the ACP (e.g., contracts with vendors and collaborations with third parties) for conflicts of interest and discloses them to the Board, whether discovered before or after the transaction has occurred.

If any person has reasonable cause to believe that the ACP's Conflict of Interest Policy has been violated, the policy provides that such person should inform the Board of Directors, which shall carefully evaluate all complaints. If the Board of Directors has reasonable cause to believe that a person covered by the policy has violated the policy, it informs such person of the basis for such belief and affords the person a reasonable opportunity to respond. If, after providing the person a reasonable opportunity to respond and making any additional investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board of Directors determines that such person
