Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services - Endure International has three program services in addition to the three listed in Part III, lines 4a, 4b, and 4c. They are:

1. Puppet Ministry for Children: We send volunteers from the USA to the Middle East to teach local teams how to use puppets to teach children about God and His word. We also provide the materials that the local teams need for their ongoing puppet ministry. In 2009 the cost of this ministry was $29,002.

2. Church Planting: Endure International actively supports church planting efforts in a number of Middle Eastern and North African countries through local missionaries or staff. A good number of house churches and Bible study cell groups have been formed as a result of these efforts. In 2009 the cost of this ministry was $15,267, including grants of $6,242.

3. Bible Translation: In cooperation with other Christian ministries, Endure International has adopted a people group in a North African country and has actively supported and continues to regularly support the translation of the Bible into their indigenous language. The cost of this ministry in 2009 was $17,376.

Part VI, Line 2 Thomas King, officer and director, and Leigh King, director, have a family relationship

Part VI, Line 2 Hanna Shahin, officer and director, and Evelyn Shahin, director, have a family relationship

Starting with the November 2009 meeting, as a group the board members will annually review the conflicts of Part VI, line 15a and 15b - Only one officer, the president and CEO, is compensated financially. When the mission was established in 2005, the board of directors, without the president's presence, established his salary. They relied primarily on comparability with the compensation that another 501(c)(3) Christian organization in the same town paid its employees with similar levels of responsibility. Since then, the board has reviewed the president's salary and benefits each year. The review is always done without the president's presence. Each year they have provided no change, or a small increase for increases in the cost of living. The deliberations are documented in the minutes of the board meetings.

Part VI, Line 19 - Our governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available to anyone who requests them by contacting our office.
