| Form 990 XI   | 2c               | The consolidated financial statements are audited at the System level. Even though the audit is performed at the System level, each company's audit/finance committee members participate in the annual audit planning with the independent auditors. In addition, the individual company audit/finance members have special meetings to review the audit report, SAS 114, SAS 115, and the Constructive Service Letter (CSL) with the auditors. The SAS 115 and CSL are detailed by company where deficiencies are identified. The audit work itself is actually done at the individual facility level. |
| Form 990 V    | 2ab              | The employees of WVUH East are paid by City Hospital, Jefferson Memorial Hospital, and WVU Hospital. The related payroll filings are prepared by those entities. | Schedule R IV | 1p               | WVUH East works as a pass-through entity. Since it operates solely to support its member hospitals, it is reimbursed for operating expenses by these hospitals. The value derived from this relationship by the member hospitals is shown in the purchase discounts and rebates received through affiliation with this regional healthcare system.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Form 990 IV   | 12A              | Schedule D, Parts XII and XIII - For 2009, WVUH-East chose to prepare Schedule D Parts XII and XIII to reconcile the revenue and expenses shown on the consolidated audited financial statements to revenue and expenses for WVUH-East shown on the Form 990. This is a change from prior year reporting. In prior years we reconciled revenue and expenses only at the individual entity level. By reconciling to the audited consolidated statements we allow for more transparency in reporting.                                                                                                      |
