Areas of Interest

Emphasis will be placed on supporting proactive, long term prevention and intervention programs benefiting at-risk youth, as well as providing general operating support to help sustain organizations providing services to low income and at-risk youth throughout Routt County. Grant funding will reflect the goal to support youth advocacy throughout the entire Routt County area, including North Routt, South Routt and Hayden.

Grantee Eligibility Requirements

The Craig-Scheckman Family Foundation (CSFF) makes grants to charitable tax-exempt organizations including private non-profit organizations and governmental agencies that are a part of state, county or city government that operate youth advocacy programs, community projects or educational projects that provide services to at-risk or low income youth. Youth shall be defined as newborn through eighteen years old.

The CSFF requires all public charities applying for a grant to show evidence of their 501 (c) (3) public charity status through a copy of an IRS determination letter. Government agencies must be a government run educational or public advocacy organization and must be a political subdivision of the state of Colorado. Grants to private foundations are prohibited, as are grants to individuals.

Grant Funding Cycles

There shall be two funding cycles each year. The first funding cycle deadline for grant applications will be the first business day in May with grantee notification by the first business day of June. The second funding cycle deadline will be the first business day of November with notification by the first business day of December. Most grants will fall in the category of the Standard Grant, ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. The High
