PRESENTS THE

HUGE-NWU SCHOLARSHIP

APPLICATION INFORMATION & DIRECTIONS

THE SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

The Harry and Reba Huge Foundation (the "Foundation") will provide two scholarships of $25,000 each annually toward the tuition and/or related educational expenses, such as room, board, or books, of an undergraduate program at Nebraska Wesleyan University ("NWU"). The scholarship monies will be paid directly to Nebraska Wesleyan University and shall be used for tuition and other education-related expenses as agreed upon by the Committee and recipient.

Monies from other scholarships and grants will be applied to the cost of attendance at NWU before resources from the Huge-NWU Scholarship will be used. Unused monies in a given year will accrue for the student's educational use while enrolled at Nebraska Wesleyan. Monies not used upon graduation will be returned to the Huge-NWU Scholarship fund.

Each scholarship is renewable three times—for a total of $100,000 over four years of undergraduate study—provided the recipient maintains a GPA of 3.25 for the preceding scholastic year. If, in the opinion of the Scholarship Committee, unusual and unexpected circumstances result in a scholarship recipient not reaching the 3.25 GPA, that requirement may be suspended following discussion with the Scholarship Committee and the scholarship recipient.

It is also expected that the scholarship recipient will meet with members of the Scholarship Committee during and following the end of each academic year to discuss the scholarship recipient's experience during his or her first year and subsequent years at NWU.

In addition to the basic scholarship award, the Huge-NWU Scholarship winners may also be eligible for an additional scholarship award to permit study abroad at a recognized university. The award winners will also be eligible for summer internships or research experience arranged by the Huge Foundation and/or Nebraska Wesleyan University. The award winners will be assigned a "mentor" from either the Huge Foundation or Nebraska Wesleyan University. It is also anticipated that a seminar and/or conference will be organized for the Huge-NWU scholars and scholars and faculty from other colleges and universities in the United States and abroad.

The Harry and Reba Huge Foundation is organized under the laws of the State of Nebraska and is a Section 501(c)(3) qualified organization exempt from United States federal income tax. The Foundation was organized in December 2005 by Harry Huge and his wife, Reba Kinne Huge. Harry Huge is a 1959 graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University and Reba Kinne Huge is a 1959 graduate of the University of Nebraska—Lincoln.

ELIGIBILITY

The Foundation's two scholarships (the "Huge-NWU Scholarships") will be awarded to two students who meet the following requirements

1. Attend an accredited high school or home school anywhere in the United States or an equivalent high school anywhere in the world and graduate from such accredited high school in the spring of the year in which applications are due, and
2. Have an ACT score of 25 or higher (SAT of 1140 or higher) and rank in the top 20% of their high school class (This criteria may be waived for students who are graduating from a school that does not rank), and
3. Huge-NWU scholarships will be awarded to the most qualified applicants regardless of whether they will receive grants or scholarships from other sources to attend NWU; and
4. Huge-NWU scholarships will be awarded to students enrolled in any academic major course of study or studies or to enrolled students who have not yet decided upon an academic major, and
5. The application will include two short essays and two letters of recommendation, and
6. In order to qualify for years two, three, and four for the annual $25,000 award, a scholarship recipient must maintain in the previous year a cumulative grade point average of 3.25, and
7. Huge-NWU scholars must live in approved NWU campus housing (including Greek houses) all four years and become fully involved in campus life, (e.g., campus organizations and activities, varsity and intramural athletic programs, and social life), and
8. Meet all criteria of acceptance for admission to Nebraska Wesleyan University.

APPLICATION DIRECTIONS

Please complete the following application form and enclose all of the necessary documentation in a manila envelope sized at least 8 1/2 by 11 inches. Please address the envelope to:

The Harry and Reba Huge Foundation
c/o Harry Huge, Chairman
NWU, Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid
5000 Saint Paul Avenue
Lincoln, Nebraska 68504

The application deadline is January 10 of the applicant's senior year. The application must be postmarked by this date in order to meet the deadline. We will confirm by letter or e-mail, either directly to you or through your high school guidance counselor, that your application has been received on a timely basis.

The last section of the application is a checklist to help you ensure your application has been completed correctly. Please note that presentation, sentence and paragraph structure, spelling and grammar do count, so be sure to edit your entire application.

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE APPLICATION

If you have questions about your eligibility, the application process, or the application form and the scholarships, please discuss them with your guidance counselors or advisors, who, if they cannot answer your questions, can contact the Foundation or the Scholarship Committee. Or you may write or e-mail Tom Och-sner, Nebraska Wesleyan University, Director of Scholarships and Financial Aid, at tjo@nebrwesleyan.edu

SELECTION OF WINNERS

A four person Scholarship Committee consisting of Harry Huge, the committee chairman, and Reba Huge, representing the Foundation, and two Nebraska Wesleyan University representatives has been formed to review the applications for the Huge-NWU Scholarships and to make the decision of the scholarship winners. The Scholarship Committee will select a preliminary group of finalists from the submitted paper applications, and then will interview the finalists to determine the award winners.

The Scholarship Committee will select two winners based on a holistic evaluation of the complete application and the interviews with the finalists. The committee will strongly consider academic achievement and credentials, such as an applicant's high school rank within their class, their curriculum and GPA and ACT/SAT scores. The committee will give equal weight to leadership qualities, activities, community service, work experience outside of school, honors and recognition by his or her peers. The committee will also evaluate an applicant's personal qualities and interests as demonstrated in the letters of recommendation, the applicant's essay and by the experiences and activities pursued both in and out of high school. The financial need and requirements of the applicants will also be considered and will be another important factor in awarding the scholarships. The Scholarship Committee will not assign a percentage weight to each of these factors and will consider all of these factors in determining the finalists and the eventual winners.

The Scholarship Committee will notify all applicants of their status, either as finalist or no longer under consideration for a scholarship, on or before March 1 of the year of application. The finalists for the scholarship will then be interviewed by members of the Scholarship Committee on the NWU campus in Lincoln, Nebraska, during March. The interviews are being conducted so that the Scholarship Committee will have an opportunity to personally meet and get to know the applicant, and the applicant will get to know the Scholarship Committee members. The applicants will also be able to ask questions of the Scholarship Committee and make an oral presentation to the Scholarship Committee. If, for a compelling reason, the applicant cannot travel to Lincoln for a personal interview, the committee will conduct the interview by telephone conference call.

The Scholarship Committee will notify all finalists, by telephone and confirmation letter, as to its final decisions regarding the scholarship recipients on or before April 20.

V. Two (2) Essays

After reading about the purpose and goals of the Foundation and its relationship with Nebraska Wesleyan University as set forth in the introduction to this Huge-NWU Scholarship application, please reflect on the following questions. Then, respond to each question in an essay, either typed or handwritten, so that the response to each question is no longer than one page in length

What events in your life have accounted for your achievements, values and goals, and how have they made you want to apply for this scholarship to Nebraska Wesleyan University?

How did the events of September 11, 2001, and subsequent events to date, affect your view of the world, and the role of the United States in this world?

VI. High School Transcript

Please include an official high school transcript (or transcripts if you have attended more than one high school) in a signed, sealed envelope with your scholarship application. Be sure that your current transcript includes your senior year grades through and including the mid-term if possible.

VII. Two (2) Letters of Recommendation

The Scholarship Committee would like to hear from two adults who know you well and can speak to qualities such as your dedication to your studies, academic and leadership potential, extracurricular involvement in school and in community services, your work ethic and experience, and your character. The first recommendation must be from a teacher or athletic coach who has taught or coached you in an academic subject or athletic team in your junior or senior year. The second recommendation must be from an adult outside of the school who knows you from the community, such as a neighbor, employer, Scout leader, or religious leader. With this in mind, please thoughtfully select two people to write a letter of recommendation for you and include their letters along with your application. A summary of the recommendation guidelines is given below:

First letter – from a teacher and/or athletic coach who has taught or coached you in an academic subject or athletic sport in junior or senior year

Second letter – from a member of the community outside of school

Please include these letters in signed, sealed envelopes along with your scholarship application

VIII. Signatures of Applicant, Parent/Guardian & Guidance Counselor
