Part IV Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any additional information.

Schedule F, Part I, Line 2: Organization's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds outside the United States:

1. Creche de I'Enfant Jesus and Chances for Children meet at the start of each year and prepare a budget - we rework, revise and come to a number we both agree to.

2. Each month Chances for Children wires to Creche de I'Enfant Jesus the funds needed to run the orphanage (based on the budget from step 1) that month.

3. At the end of each month Creche de I'Enfant Jesus sends Chances for Children a monthly expense and income (grants received) report that details the money they received and the money they spent. In addition we receive reports on each child being adopted at the end of the adoption. This report shows all of the legal fees that were paid by Creche de I'Enfant Jesus to complete the adoption. Part of the Adoption Fee is used to pay for these expenses. The remainder of the adoption fee is used to help subsidize the monthly costs of running the orphanage and caring for the children.

4. On each visit to Haiti we review the financial components with them and learn of changes, the need for capital improvements, supplies, etc.

Schedule F, Part I, Line 3: Method used to account for expenditures:

Grants are accounted for in a separate expense account equal to the cash wired to the Creche de I'Enfant Jesus each month.

discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
