Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

Any person who has a financial interest in a business that has a transaction arrangement with the Organization must present the details of that transaction to the Board. Those with the financial interest must then leave the room while the remainder of the Board decides whether/not a conflict of interest exists.

In the leased labor arrangement between the Organization and the Irish Pub (reported in Schedule L), the Board found that the transaction did not constitute a conflict of interest because:

- a. The Irish Pub was paid the same amount for leased labor as was a non-related individual for the same services in 2007
- b. The Organization was able to realize cost savings by not having to file payroll reports, pay payroll taxes, unemployment compensation and workers compensation
- c. Through the leased labor arrangement, the Organization was able to
