Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	On January 1, 2009, AJWS adopted the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements Under this guidance, AJWS may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more-likely-than-not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods Management evaluated AJWS's tax positions and concluded that AJWS had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance With few exceptions, AJWS is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U S federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2006, which is the standard statute of limitations look-back period

Identifier	ReturnReference	Explanation
Procedure for Monitoring Grants Outside the U S		Schedule F, Part I, Line 2 Before a grant is made to an organization, an AJWS staff member or consultant typically conducts a site visit to see the work firsthand All grantees are screened by AJWS staff to ensure compliance with U S treasury guidelines In countries where site visits are not possible due to security issues (i e Sudan, Afghanistan, Democratic Republic of the Congo, etc), AJWS staff contacts other funders that work with the grantee organization and checks references Once a grant has been approved by AJWS's board committee, AJWS staff drafts a grant agreement that is based on the grantees' own proposal, it details the activities the grantee commits to carrying out and outlines the reporting requirements Once the grantee signs the agreement, the first half of the total grant amount is processed Program officers are then asked to check on the progress of the project at the five-month mark During the sixth month, provided there are no major concerns, the grantee receives the remainder of its funds Eight months into the grant, grantees are required to provide a brief report on their progress to date A detailed narrative and financial report that is in accordance with the commitments agreed upon in the grant agreement is required 13 months from the project start date For donor-advised fund grants, expenditure responsibility requirements are followed per the IRS Once a grant has been approved by AJWS' board committee, AJWS staff drafts a grant agreement which includes the project and reporting requirements After the grantee reviews and signs the agreement, the first payment is processed Subsequent payments for multi-year grants are contingent upon the receipt of a satisfactory report on the first year of grant activities All donor-advised fund grants must receive a financial and narrative report at the end of every year AJWS staff reviews these reports against the original proposal and upon approval, processes any further payments if applicable
Schedule F, Part IV	Other Information	grants with negative amounts - Grants displayed as a negative number (e g -$15,000) represent grant agreements that were approved and awarded in the previous fiscal year Future payments for these grants were withheld or forfeited by AJWS for reasons deemed necessary by the monitoring program officer and the director of grants These grants are usually written-off from the organization's payables list after the fiscal year in which they were originally granted, thus reflecting a negative number in the current fiscal year

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		American Jewish World Service regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with our conflict of interest policy The organization's officers, directors and key employees annually update the Conflicts of Interest Disclosure Statement, which is then reviewed by managers for compliance If an individual was to disclose a potential conflict of interest, it is reviewed by the President, Executive Committee and Board of Trustees
