Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

1 Briefly describe the organization’s mission

Ceres' mission is to integrate sustainability into capital markets for the health of the planet and its people. Ceres is known for its unique ability to bring diverse groups together to find positive solutions for complex environmental and social challenges. For example, in January 2010 at the United Nations, Ceres convened representatives of U.S. and international investor groups representing $22 trillion in capital to examine and address the investment risks and emerging business opportunities from climate change and related macro environmental impacts. Ceres introduced the concept of "Climate Risk" to world business leaders and has mobilized $8 trillion of investors to tackle climate change. Ceres launched the Ceres Principles, a corporate environmental code of conduct, and the Global Reporting Initiative, now the de-facto standard for reporting environmental and social performance of 1,500 companies worldwide.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☒ Yes ☐ No

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

Policy Programs. Ceres is engaged in developing climate and energy policies that encourage sustainable business practices which lessen the impacts of global warming. Ceres educates business leaders and investors on the related issues and opportunities and involves them in the political process. In 2009, Ceres expanded the Business for Innovative Climate and Energy Policy (BICEP) coalition. Ceres staff work with this coalition of well-known consumer brands to promote policies addressing long-term economic threats posed by global warming. Ceres collaborates with other organizations to further the goals of the program.

4b	(Code)	(Expenses $ 1,260,124	including grants of $	(Revenue $)
Industry Programs. Ceres brings investors and environmental experts together with representatives from industries engaged in the electric power, oil, insurance, transportation, and real estate sectors to find solutions to a range of environmental problems attributable to these activities conducted by companies in these sectors. Ceres has also developed a water program, which looks at cross-cutting issues related to water use and quality in company supply chains and production processes. Ceres is coordinating dialogues on climate change with the electric power sector, commercial real estate developers and operators, and oil companies. Ceres is also working with insurance companies and regulators to incorporate environmental impacts in risk assessment models.

4c	(Code)	(Expenses $ 985,073	including grants of $	(Revenue $ 221,423)
Investor Programs. Ceres works with investors worldwide to improve corporate and public policies on climate change and other environmental, social and corporate governance issues. As part of this mission, in 2003 Ceres launched and continues to coordinate the Investor Network on Climate Risk (INCR), now an alliance of over 90 leading U.S. and European institutional investors with assets of over $10 trillion. Through INCR, Ceres has mobilized major institutional investors to press companies for climate risk analysis and disclosure. Investor Summits, coordinated by Ceres, were held at the United Nations in 2003, 2005, 2008, and 2010. These gatherings brought together leaders from global asset owners and managers to consider how collectively their actions and decisions affect corporate behavior and accountability.

Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	the organization accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. if a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of the positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. interest and penalties assessed, if any, are accrued as income tax expense. the organization has identified its tax status as a tax exempt entity as a tax position and has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. the organization is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdiction. its federal and state income tax returns are generally open for examination for the past 3 years.
