STATEMENT #2 - PART III

The organization's tax-exempt purpose is to promote youth participation in sports programs. To that end, the organization sponsors football and cheerleading teams, which it helps outfit, provides coaches, and coordinates a schedule of events, including competitions. It also sponsors an awards ceremony, and provides scholarships.

STATEMENT #3 - LINE 29

Grants for scholarship recipients are awarded to four graduating seniors who have completed one full season as an organization football player or cheerleader, and/or have completed two years as an organization student demonstrator, coach or volunteer. In addition, the recipients must be continuing their education at an accredited institution of higher learning, and must have been involved in service to the community or school.

STATEMENT #4 - LINE 35

Income reported on lines 2, 6A, and 7A are not reported on Form 990-T for the following reasons:

Line 2 represents fees charged for participation in the sports program, based on ability to pay. The fees cover only a part of the costs of running the program, but do provide some of the funds need to sponsor the teams.

Line 6A represents revenue from fundraising/special events held to raise money to support the organization's programs. This revenue is reported on Schedule G of this Form 990-EZ.

Line 7A represents income from sales of athletic attire, including sneakers and practice jerseys, needed by the participants in the sports programs but not provided by the organization.
