Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Society adopted FASB ASC 740-10 (formerly FASB Interpretation No 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes), as of January 1, 2009. Management has evaluated the impact of this standard on its financial statements and believes that there are no uncertain tax positions and the effects of adopting this standard is not material to the Organization's financial position or change in net assets. The Society recognizes interest expense and penalties in interest expense. There was no interest or penalties related to income taxes recognized for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008.

Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	Under the Society's endowment spending policy, 4 75 Percent of the average market value at the mid-point of the previous three years is appropriated for current operations. The investment policy utilized by the Society attempts to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets (donor-restricted funds that the Society must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period as well as council designated funds). Endowments have been established for the following activities: administration, research, publications, meetings, library, Franklin Hall, and any other activity of the Society.
Part IV, Line 1b	Part IV, Line 1b Why is organization an agent, trustee, custodian or other intermediary for contrib	The Society is the beneficiary under a number of trusts administered by two banks. The assets of the trusts are not included in the Statement of Financial Position of the Society since the Society does not exercise any control over those funds and certain conditions must be met annually to receive the income. The income from the trusts for 2009 and 2008 was $210,581 and $229,534, respectively.
Part III, Line 4	Part III, Line 4 Description of organization's collections and how it furthers its purpose	The Society's offices and exhibition galleries are located in Philosophical Hall, a national historic landmark. Its collection of books, manuscripts and works of art support research, discovery and public education through public exhibitions and the Society's research library.
Part III, Line 1a	Part III, Line 1a If organization elected under SFAS 116 to not report are, historical treasures, o	Collection items acquired either through purchase or donation are not capitalized. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets if purchased with unrestricted assets and as decreases in temporarily restricted or permanently restricted net assets if purchased with donor-restricted assets. Contributions of collection items are not recognized in the Statement of Activities. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected on the Statement of Activities based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions. The Society's accounts do not include values of Philosophical Hall, built between 1785 and 1789, a national historic landmark, and its collection of books, manuscripts and works of art.
