Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Food Bank adopted a new accounting standard, which clarifies the uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company's financial statements and prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has been met. The standard also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure. Management has determined that the standard does not have a material impact on the Food Bank's financial statements. The Food Bank's Federal Exempt Organization Business income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007, and 2006 remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Form 990 is prepared by independent accountants. After review by the Director of the Food Bank a copy is sent to board members prior to filing.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		All employees are given a copy of the conflict of interest policy upon employment. Officers, directors and key employees are annually provided with a copy of the policy and shall sign a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement, which shall disclose any possible conflicts of interest that were not previously disclosed and fully disclose all material facts pertaining to such conflict of interest. Covered persons shall include directors, officers, and members of committees with board-delegated powers, employees, volunteers and agents who serve in a fiduciary capacity to, or have been delegated the authority to act on behalf of the York County Food Bank, Inc, and a member of a covered person's immediate family and any organization in which they or their immediate family, directly or indirectly have a material financial or other beneficial interest. Covered persons shall fully disclose the existence of and all material facts in connection with the actual or potential conflict of interest to the board or committee members. If the board or committee determines that an actual conflict of interest exists, it shall determine the extent, if at all, to which covered persons may participate in discussion of the matter. Covered persons with an actual conflict of interest shall remain outside the room during discussion and voting upon the transaction or arrangement that results in the conflict. To ensure that the York County Food Bank Inc operates in compliance with this statement of policy and in a manner consistent with its charitable purpose and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its status, the York County Food Bank Inc's internal and or external auditors shall conduct periodic reviews of the business and financial transactions of the York County Food Bank Inc as well as the annual process of obtaining signed Conflict of Interest Disclosure statements. The confidential findings of such reviews, including any recommendations for correction or improvement, shall be reported to the Board of Directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The organization does not make its governing documents or conflict of interest policy available for public inspection as this is not required by federal or state law. The organization includes a copy of its financial statements with the state registration filed with the Pennsylvania Department of State, Bureau of Charitable Organizations. These documents are a matter of public record and can be viewed at the bureau office.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 2C		The Board of Directors assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of an independent accountant.
