Form 990 Schedule A

Part II, line 17a

The organization has met the 10% facts and circumstances test for both 2008 and 2009 for the following reasons.

The organization meets the two basic requirements of the test. The organization meets the first basic ten percent support limitation requirement, Reg. § 1.170A-9T(f)(3)(i). The organization's public support for 2008 and 2009 was substantial. Its public support percentage for 2008 was 29.62% and for 2009 was 28.12%. These percentages are very little short of the  $33\frac{1}{3}$  public support percentage needed to qualify outright as a publicly supported organization.

The organization also meets the second basic attraction of public support requirement, Reg. § 1.170A-9T(f)(3)(ii) in that the organization maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from the general public and in particular from members of the public who are likely to share an interest in the organization's principal objectives of furthering the restoration and ongoing maintenance of and public attendance at the Palace of Versailles and the Giverny gardens in France and other French monuments. These institutions draw large attendance from around the world, including the United States.

The organization's fund raising is centered around its benefit dinner held annually, which in 2009 produced contributions of $353,630.53. A mailing list for use in fund raising has evolved over the organization's almost 40 years of existence and is geared toward persons likely to have an interest in the organization's activities and objectives. The list currently consists of over 2,300 persons who live in 39 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and 39 countries other than the United States. The list is supplemented from time to time to include additional persons interested in the organization. The annual New York benefit dinner in April 2009 drew 137 attendees and contributors from 14 states, the District of Columbia and 5 countries other than the United States. In 2009 the organization received contributions apart from the benefit dinner of $28,860.00.

The organization also satisfies a number of the factors set forth in the paragraphs under Reg. § 1.170A-9T(f)(3)(iii). In regard to paragraph (A) the percentage of support received by the organization from public sources is considerably higher than the 10 percent requirement of paragraph (f)(3)(i), thus lessening the burden of establishing the publicly supported nature of the organization through other factors described in paragraph (f)(3). Moreover, the organization's slight shortfall in failing to meet the 33 $\frac{1}{3}$  % test is not caused entirely by having substantial investment income from interest and dividends but also by having substantial royalty income from the licensing of its Court of Versailles and Sun King trademarks for sale on various products. It is submitted that the sale of these products expands public awareness and interest in the Palace of Versailles and that this contributes to a principal objective of the organization to further the maintenance of and public attendance at the Palace of Versailles.

In regard to paragraph(f)(3)(iii)(B) the organization received its support from a representative number of persons rather than receiving almost all of its support from members of a single family. As noted above, the organization reaches out to over 2300 individuals for contributions and receives support from a significant number in view of the fact that the interests of the organization focus on special sites in a European country.

In regard to paragraph (f)(3)(iii)(D) the organization assists in the restoration and maintenance of two major historic sites in France which draw several million visitors annually from throughout the world, including numerous from the United States, and benefit the general public on a continuing basis. The organization also has programs at Giverny known as the Munn Volunteer Programs which accommodate from April through October a total of five volunteers and 3 artists at any one time for a duration for each volunteer or artist of one to two months. The volunteers assist in the crucial maintaining of the gardens at Giverny and receive their board and 250 euros per month from the organization. The volunteers also are able to interact with the 3 artists enrolled in an art study program operated by an American school of art. The volunteer program at the same time provides for a continuing educational experience for the volunteers. It also advances the purpose of the organization in promoting public awareness of the Museum and gardens.
