Directors

2.1. Directors - Number and Tenure. The number of directors to constitute the initial Board of Directors of the corporation shall be three (3). The number of directors to constitute subsequent Boards of Directors shall be determined by the directors of the corporation at each regular meeting of the directors, except that the directors may create new directorships at any special meeting. If the number of directors is not determined at any regular meeting, the number of directors shall remain the same as it was immediately preceding such meeting.

A director does not need to be a resident of the State of Missouri, unless the Articles of Incorporation so require; a director must be at least 18 years of age.

Each director shall hold office until the next succeeding regular meeting of the directors or until such director's successor is elected and qualified, unless such director earlier resigns or is removed.

Each director shall hold office for a term of six years or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified (unless such director earlier resigns or is removed).

The attendance of any director at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors or such director's written approval of the minutes of any such meeting shall constitute acceptance of the office of director.

- 2.2. Powers of the Board. The property and business of the corporation shall be controlled and managed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have and is vested with all and unlimited powers and authorities, except as may be expressly limited by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, to do or cause to be done any and all lawful things for and on behalf of the corporation, to exercise or cause to be exercised any or all of its powers, privileges and franchises, and to seek the effectuation of its objects and purposes. The Board of Directors shall serve without compensation, but by resolution of the Board of Directors, a reasonable sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving reasonable compensation for personal services actually rendered.
- 2.3. Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without other notice than this Bylaw at the corporation's executive offices at the hour of 10:00 a.m. on the fourth Friday following the close of the calendar or fiscal year of the corporation; provided, however, that a majority of the directors may designate that the regular meeting be held at such different time or place as shall be consented to by them in writing, if all directors are notified of the different time or place in the same manner as they would be notified of a special meeting, except that it shall not be necessary to state the purposes of the meeting in such notice. Any business may be transacted at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

Additional regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such times and places either within or without the State of Missouri as shall from time to time be fixed by resolution adopted by a majority of the full Board of Directors.

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any meeting of the Board by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting in this manner shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

- 2.4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or the Secretary, or any two directors, by giving or delivering written notice of such meeting to each director at least two full days, not counting Sundays and legal holidays, before the day on which the meeting is to be held, either personally or by mail, stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which it is called. The person or persons calling the special meeting may fix the place, either within or without the State of Missouri, as a place for holding the meeting. If notice is given by mail, it shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid, addressed to the director at his residence or usual place of business. If notice is given in person, it may be given by any officer having authority to call the meeting or by any director.
- 2.5. Action by Consent in Lieu of Meeting. Any action which is required to be or which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all the directors severally or collectively sign a written consent which sets forth the action to be taken. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the directors at a meeting duly held and may be stated as such in any certificate or document executed on behalf of the corporation. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors.
- 2.6. Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall, unless a greater number as to any particular matter is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. Less than a quorum may adjourn a meeting successively until a quorum is present.
- 2.7. Waiver. Any notice required to be given to a director by any provision of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or any law may be waived in writing signed by such director, whether before, at or after the time stated therein, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where such director attends the meeting for the express purpose, and so states at the opening of the meeting, of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
- 2.8. Vacancies. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director until the next election of directors.

Executive Committee. The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board of Directors, designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution, shall have and may exercise any or all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation.

The members of the committee may take actions by written consents in lieu of meetings and may participate in meetings by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment in the same manner as the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings which shall be recorded in the minute book of the corporation. The Secretary of the corporation may act as Secretary for the committee if the committee so requests.

2.10. Compensation of Directors and Committee Members. Directors or members of all committees shall not be compensated for their services.

ARTICLE 3

Officers

Elected Officers. A President and a Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following a regular Board of Directors' meeting.

An elected officer shall be deemed qualified when such officer begins the duties of the office to which such officer has been elected and furnishes any bond required by the Board; but the Board may also require of such person a written acceptance and promise to discharge faithfully the duties of such office. The officers of the corporation need not be members of the Board of Directors in the corporation.

- Term of Office. Each elected officer of the corporation shall hold office for the term for which such officer was elected or until such officer resigns or is removed by the Board of Directors, whichever first occurs.
- Appointed Officers; Terms of Office. The Board of Directors from time to time may also appoint such other officers for the corporation as it shall deem necessary or advisable. All appointed officers shall hold their respective positions at the pleasure of the Board of Directors or for such terms as the Board may specify, and they shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board or by an elected officer empowered by the Board to make such determinations.
- Removal. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed or discharged by the Board whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. - 3.5. Delegation of Authority to Hire, Discharge and Designate Duties. The Board of Directors from time to time may delegate to the President authority to hire, discharge, fix, and modify the duties of employees of the corporation under the jurisdiction of the corporation, and the Board of Directors may delegate to such officer or executive employee similar authority with respect to obtaining and retaining for the corporation the services of attorneys, accountants and other experts.
- 3.6. The President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation. The President shall have such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the office of the chief executive of a corporation and shall carry into effect all directions and resolutions of the Board. The President shall have such other or further duties and authority as may be prescribed elsewhere in these Bylaws or from time to time by the Board of Directors.

The President may execute all bonds, notes, debentures, mortgages and other contracts and may cause the seal of the corporation to be affixed thereto and to all other instruments for and in the name of the corporation. The President, when authorized by the Board of Directors to do so, may execute powers of attorney from, for and in the name of the corporation to such proper person or persons as the President may deem fit, in order that the business of the corporation may be furthered or action taken as may be deemed by the President necessary or advisable in furtherance of the interests of the corporation.

Unless provided otherwise by the Board of Directors, the President may attend meetings of other corporations to represent the corporation at such meetings and to vote or take action with respect of any such corporation owned by this corporation in such manner as the President shall deem to be in the best interests of the corporation or as may be directed by the Board and may execute and deliver waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the corporation.

The President shall, unless the Board otherwise provides, be ex officio a member of all standing committees.

3.7. The Secretary. The Secretary shall have the general duties, powers and responsibilities of a secretary of a corporation. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and, except as otherwise provided in Section 3.5 of these Bylaws, shall record or cause to be recorded all votes taken and the minutes of all proceedings in a minute book of the corporation to be kept for that purpose. The Secretary shall perform like duties for the executive and other standing committees when requested by the Board or such committee to do so.

The Secretary shall bear the principal responsibility to give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Board of Directors, but this shall not lessen the authority of others to give such notice as is authorized elsewhere in these Bylaws. The Secretary shall see that all books, records, lists and information required to be maintained at the registered or other office of the corporation in Missouri or elsewhere are so maintained. The Secretary shall keep in safe custody the seal of the corporation and, when duly authorized to do so, shall affix the same to any instrument requiring it, and when so affixed the Secretary shall attest the same by such Secretary's signature. The Secretary shall perform such other duties and have such other authority as may be prescribed elsewhere in these Bylaws or from time to time by the Board of Directors or the President, under whose direct supervision the Secretary shall be.

3.8. Duties of Officers May be Delegated. If any officer of the corporation be absent or unable to act or for any other reason that the Board of Directors may delegate, for the time being, some or all of the functions, duties, powers and responsibilities of any officer to any other officer of the corporation or other responsible person, provided a majority of the full Board of Directors concurs therein.

ARTICLE 4

Indemnification

4.1. Indemnification of Officers, Directors and Others.

- The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is (a) threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer, of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.
- threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or the suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of such person's duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability and in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

- To the extent that a director or officer of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of this section or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the action, suit or proceeding.
- Any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of this Bylaw, unless ordered by the court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer, is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this section. Such determinations shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding, or if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or by the directors.
- Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.
- The indemnification provided by this Bylaw shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any Bylaw or agreement, of disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.
- The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of this Bylaw.

ARTICLE 5

Exhibit A

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST POLICY OF THE MERIRMAN FOUNDATION

Article I

Purpose

The purpose of this Conflicts of Interest Policy is to protect the interests of the Merriman Foundation ("Foundation") when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an Officer or Director of Foundation. This Policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable corporations.

Article II

Definitions

1. Interested Person.

Any Director, Officer, or member of a committee with Board-delegated powers who has a direct or indirect "financial interest," as defined below, is an "interested person."

2. Financial Interest.

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment or family:

- a. an ownership or investment interest greater than 1% in any entity with which the Foundation has entered into a transaction or arrangement;
- b. a compensation arrangement with the Foundation or with any entity or individual with which the Foundation has a transaction or arrangement; or
- c. a probable future ownership or investment interest greater than 1% in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Foundation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

"Compensation" includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are substantial in nature.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest has a conflict of interest only if the Board or appropriate committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III

Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose.

In connection with any actual or possible conflicts of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of his or her financial interest and must be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Directors or members of committees with Board-delegated powers, considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. If requested by a Foundation Officer or Director, the Directors shall provide to the Board a list of all entities in which they have an ownership interest that does or may likely do business with the Foundation. This disclosure shall include the name of the entity and the individual's ownership percentage, if known.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists.

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, the determination of a conflict of interest shall be discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board or committee members shall then decide if a conflict of interest exists.

- Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest.
 - a. An individual with a conflict of interest may be present during the portion of the meeting of the Board or committee where the remaining Directors discuss and vote upon the proposed transaction. Such individual, however, shall not participate in the discussion concerning the transaction or otherwise use his or her personal influence on such remaining Directors respecting the proposed transaction and shall abstain from voting on the proposed transaction.
 - b. The chairperson of the Board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
 - c. After exercising due diligence, the Board or committee shall determine whether the Foundation can obtain a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
 - d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Foundation's best interest and whether the transaction is fair and reasonable to the Foundation, and shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in accordance with such determination.

- 4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy.
 - a. If the Board or committee has reasonable cause to believe that a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
 - b. If, after hearing the response of the member and making such further investigation as it deems necessary or appropriate, the Board or committee determines that the member has in fact failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and/or corrective action.

Article IV

Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the Board and all committee with Board-delegated powers shall contain:

- the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have an actual conflict of interest and the Board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed; and
- 2. if there is a conflict of interest, the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, if any, and a record of the votes taken in connection therewith.

Article V

Compensation

- 1. Any Director who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Foundation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
- A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Foundation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

Article VI

Periodic Reviews

1. To ensure that the Foundation operates in a manner consistent with its exempt purposes and that it does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax, periodic reviews may be conducted. Such periodic reviews shall occur only if requested by an Officer or Director of the Foundation.

If any Director or Officer shall, in such person's sole and unfettered discretion, determine that education or re-education regarding this Policy is appropriate, such education or reeducation shall occur at the cost and expense of the Foundation.

Article VII

Miscellaneous

1. Effect on Indemnification.

Nothing contained in the Policy or these procedures shall be construed in any manner to affect or limit any indemnification or protection afforded the Foundation's Directors, Officers, and others identified in the Foundation's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, as the same may exist from time to time or under any applicable law or contract.

2. Amendment.

This Conflicts of Interest Policy may not be amended without the approval of a majority of the Board of Directors at a meeting duly called and held.
