We have funded more than 50 non-profit organizations throughout our region. As an independent public charity, we have the flexibility and resources to respond to the changing face of healthcare. We are committed to the development of new initiatives designed to improve the health and wellbeing of the people of our region, and we are committed to fulfilling the charitable intent of our donors.

Activities include: Education, Grantmaking and Development of new community initiatives serving northern Minnesota, northern Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

Examples of grants made include: Treatment and educational tools for mental health patients; patient care programs and equipment for physical rehabilitation patients; cancer care; burn prevention and treatment; improvement of hospice services and more than 50 other community healthcare projects.

The Miller-Dwan Foundation, in partnership with individuals, families, businesses, and other organizations, has initiated many firsts. We created and support the Caring Ways Cancer Resource Center focused on providing vital cancer information for our entire community. We established the Abilities First Fund to help people with disabilities purchase equipment and aids that help them to more fully participate in life.
