Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Founded in 1945, the International Society of Automation (ISA) is a leading, global, nonprofit organization that is setting the standard for automation by helping over 30,000 worldwide members and other professionals solve difficult technical problems, while enhancing their leadership and personal career capabilities. Based in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina, ISA develops standards, certifies industry professionals, provides education and training, publishes books and technical articles, and hosts the largest conference and exhibition for automation professionals in the Western Hemisphere.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

(Code) (Expenses $ 3,298,418 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 917,641)

Training and Certification Services. The Society offers training products to companies and individuals involved in automation. Training is offered at the Society's headquarters facility, at sites throughout the world, in-plant, and distance learning through internet offerings. Videotape and DVD training products are also sold by the Society. The Society also maintains two professional certification programs, Certified Control Systems Technician (CCST) and Certified Automation Professional (CAP), both with training and testing offerings. The Society derives revenue from training services by charging participants registration fees. In 2009, 248 training courses were conducted and these courses were attended by 2,056 individuals.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 3,077,057 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 856,057)

Member Services. Member Services includes all efforts to provide and support member benefits and the administration of leadership structure of the Society. This program includes dues revenue for Society membership and dues revenue for membership in Divisions that specialize in specific technical interest areas of automation. Additional revenue is originated from royalties and the sale of logo merchandise. All expenses related to the Society governance, support of local Sections, administrative meetings, and the support of volunteer efforts are included in this program. The Society had 28,528 members at the end of the year and 28,727 members in technical Divisions.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 977,927 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 272,065)

Publishing Services. The Society publishes and sells books for the instrumentation, systems, and automation field. The Society also publishes and sells a professional journal of technical articles, publishes a monthly magazine and an annual directory that serves the automation industry. In 2009, 15 new book titles were published and the monthly magazine was received by 78,000 members and subscribers each month.
