What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? The mission of the Institute for Cultural Communicators is to shape culture through authentic communication and equip Christian students with both the competence and character they need to influence culture for Christ Describe what was achieved in carrying out the organization's exempt purposes. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title 28 ICC integrates speech and critical thinking to help students overcome their hesitation and effectively engage audiences. ICC's activities, workshops, and exercises help students see past their fear in a non-threatening, encouraging environment where everyone has a chance to succeed, regardless of their level of experience speaking in public. These events are held in various states lasting from one to five days training students and parents to be communicators for Christ. Chapter programs further the goal of training cultural communicators for Christ through groups of students anywhere in the world who are trained from a Biblical perspective to speak on public platforms such as retirement homes, libraries, and other venues. Several chapters raise funds to support other needy organizations. (Grants $ 207,095) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here . . . <input type="checkbox"/>	28a
