Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Line of Business

The Jenzabar Foundation, Inc. (the "Foundation") operates as a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of Massachusetts. The purpose of the Foundation is to promote, support, and engage in activities carried on for charitable, educational, literary, or scientific purposes, by the direct conduct of such activities, and by making grants to other organizations engaged in such activities. Those activities may include, but are not limited to, establishing educational programs to be carried on by colleges and universities; funding educational institutions, campus organizations, and student clubs through grants, gifts, and scholarships; supporting programs that provide financial aid to persons enrolled in educational institutions; and carrying on any other charitable activity permitted to be carried on by a not-for-profit corporation. The Foundation has been granted tax exempt status under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c) (3) which allows donors a federal income tax deduction for contributions to the organization in furtherance of its exempt purpose.

Public Support and Revenue

Annual contributions are generally available for unrestricted use in the related year unless specifically restricted by the donor. Unconditional promises to give are recorded as received. Unconditional promises to give due in the next year are reflected as current promises to give and are recorded at their net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give due in subsequent years are reflected as long-term promises to give and are recorded at the present value of their net realizable value, using risk-free interest rates applicable to the years in which the promises are received to discount the amounts. An allowance for uncollectible promises is provided based on management's evaluation of potential uncollectible promises receivable at year end.

Grants and other contributions of cash and other assets are reported as temporarily restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Contributions received with donor-imposed restrictions that are met in the same year in which the contributions are received are classified as unrestricted contributions.

Endowment contributions and investments that are permanently restricted by the donor are reflected as restricted. Investment earnings available for distribution are recorded in unrestricted net assets. Investment earnings with donor restrictions are recorded in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets based on the nature of the restrictions.

Contributions of donated noncash assets are recorded at their fair values in the period received. Contributions of donated services which create or enhance nonfinancial assets or that require specialized skills which would otherwise need to be purchased if not provided by donation, are recorded at their fair values in the period received as outlined in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards # 116.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates and assumptions by management. Such assumptions and estimates may affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those reported as the result of the use of such estimates and assumptions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of these financial statements cash in checking accounts, money market funds and other deposits with a maturity of ninety days or less are considered cash. Cash equivalents are stated at cost, which approximates market.

Note 2 – Related Party Transactions

The Foundation received administrative and accounting support from Jenzabar, Inc. Such support included use of Jenzabar, Inc. personnel, use of all of the Jenzabar Inc. physical facilities, and use of equipment as needed by the Foundation to further its charitable purpose. In addition, access to outside experts engaged by Jenzabar, Inc in the areas of marketing, law and management were available to assist in the operation of the Foundation. Jenzabar, Inc. acted as fiscal agent for the Foundation and provided direct grants based upon the Foundation's recommendation and paid expenses on behalf of the Foundation.

All income and expenses attributable to the Foundation were reflected on the books of the Foundation for the year 2009 and 2008.

A board member of the foundation is also a director of Jenzabar, Inc.

Note 3 – Economic Dependence and Risk

The Foundation is financially dependent upon the continuation of the relationship between and funding by, Jenzabar, Inc. until such time as The Foundation can obtain additional external funding support. Currently Jenzabar, Inc. is the only donor to the Foundation. The Foundation also receives administrative and operational support from Jenzabar, Inc. as described above in Note 2. At this time, there is no evidence that such continued support would not continue.

Note 4 – Donated Services

The Foundation receives a significant amount of donated services in addition to those described above from unpaid volunteers who assist in fund-raising and special projects. No amounts have been recognized in the statement of activities because the criteria for recognition under generally accepted accounting principles, as outlined in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards # 116, has not been satisfied.
