Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Part I, Item No. 2: Describe the organization's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States.

Grants awarded by Risen Resources, Inc. ("RRI") are paid to various churches or other Section 501(c)3 organizations that are responsible for the ultimate oversight of the duties and tasks performed by the minister or other secondary beneficiary of a grant. Notwithstanding, since grants awarded typically are paid out in approximately equal installments over a period of time not to exceed twelve consecutive months, RRI requires that recipients provide periodic progress reports, no less than on a quarterly basis, to the RRI Executive Director. The RRI Executive Director reviews the reports and monitors the progress of the grant recipient's ministry activities to ensure that the conditions of the grant are continually met during the period of the grant.

FORM 990 PART VI, LINES 11/11A

The initial draft of Form 990 (and related schedules) is prepared by the RISEN RESOURCES, INC. Treasurer. Following review and draft finalization with the collaboration of the organization's Executive Director, Form 990 is reviewed during a regularly scheduled meeting of the board of RISEN RESOURCES, INC., at which time a general discussion of financial condition is also conducted. A complete copy of the Form 990 (and related schedules) to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service is provided to all members of the Board of Directors prior to mailing the return.

FORM 990 PART VI, LINES 12b/12c

Pursuant to the organization's conflict of interest policy, directors are under continual obligation to make the other directors aware of any interest or relationships that could give rise to a conflict of interest. In addition, the grant application requires any applicant to disclose a related party relationship with any of the organization's directors. The Executive Director discusses and reviews each grant application with the Board. Such review and deliberation includes discussing the existence of related party or conflict of interest issues, if any.

FORM 990 PART VI, LINE 14

While the organization has not formally written its document retention policy, the Board has discussed and agreed upon its document retention practice, which is for:

1. The Executive Director (ED) to retain all grant application review and approval documentation;
2. The Secretary to retain the organization's corporate documents (with a copy retained by the ED) and copies of minutes of meetings of the Board; and
3. The Treasurer to retain appropriate documentation and source documents to support its fiduciary and tax reporting obligations and to support banking and other financial activities.

FORM 990 PART VI, LINE 15a

The somewhat limited information about comparable compensation paid by similarly-situated tax-exempt organizations is considered in the determination of setting reasonable compensation for the Executive Director. Greater consideration
