Each child who attended any camp or program were nominated by their teachers, guidance counselors, or coaches to attend camp or a program. Our group then reviewed the applications and determined whether the children met our criteria for award of a camp scholarship. Only those children living in the Anamosa/Jones County, Iowa area who were determined to otherwise not have funding available to attend summer camp or program were selected to attend. Mike's Kids then sends payment for the child's attendance directly to the camp so we can ensure our funds are used to support our charitable purpose and not some other use by the child or the child's family
