The projects in the region of Central America and the Caribbean are done in partnership with other ONE DROP entities, coordinated by ONE DROP Canada.

A "tripod" approach uses the following three components to fight poverty: (1) Arts and culture to raise awareness, educate and mobilize the population; (2) increase accessibility, responsible management and water conservation; and (3) provide micro-credit loans.

To ensure the best possible results, contracts are signed with some international and local partners, recognized for their accomplishments.

Detailed plan of implementation and budget are prepared at the beginning of a project. Frequent follow-up and reports are done during the realization phase. A permanent committee follows the projects, to ensure the consistency of strategic approaches and the effectiveness of execution, as well as the durability and leverage of the actions undertaken in developing countries.

Disbursements are done according to the completion status. Frequent visits in the field are done by professionals in charge.
