Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28
Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

With a focus in Africa, Lalela Project's art and music workshops harness the power of the arts to connect with children on both an emotional and intellectual level. The word "lalela", which in Zulu means "to listen", is at the heart of what Lalela Project strives to do. By "listening" to children through artwork and music, we learn about their challenges and dreams so we can, in turn, provide critical messaging and creative solutions to help them reach their true potential. The goals of Lalela Project's programs are to 1) Provide a safe place for children; 2) Listen to and identify key challenges in their lives; 3) Provide relevant critical messaging through an interactive, culturally relevant and innovative arts and music curriculum, touching on issues such as substance abuse, violence, gangs, and health; 4) Provide creative opportunities for children to express emotions; 5) Use art and music to cultivate imagination and "out-of-the-box" thinking so that children can envision creative solutions to challenges; 6) Introduce and encourage art and music experiences as a tool for positive change in their lives, a healthy alternative to destructive behavior and environments and a practical application for academic and professional growth; 7) Train educators to use art and music to help children engage in age-appropriate, important discussions about their life and empower students with the tools of creative expression. Lalela Project is dedicated to delivering art and music based educational experiences to South African children at-risk during the after-school and weekend hours when they are most vulnerable to substance abuse, violence, gangs, and health issues. In an effort to remain adaptable to the communities' needs, Lalela Project will implement programming in two major ways: 1) Community-Based Workshops - Art and music workshops conducted out of community-based organizations and schools in the targeted areas; and 2) Mobile Unit - A mobile unit outfitted as a traveling art and music studio, complete with video, multimedia, digital art, web, animation, and audio tools, which visits the targeted areas.
