To build a grassroots coalition of religious congregations that is multi-ethnic, multi-racial, and interfaith, capable of negotiating the interest of the people of Greater Cincinnati and vicinity, with special concern for involvement and issues of low and moderate income people; to develop a responsible vehicle to address issues such as housing, hunger, poverty, education, and public safety dialogue, education, training, development of new leaders, and cooperative action.

The AMOS PROJECT is a group of congregations committed to living out their faith through public action. As we reflect upon the conditions of Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky, we see much beauty, and a caring and courageous people with a proud history. At the same time, we also see our children struggling with drugs, racial division, growing poverty, unemployment, and failing schools, People are often unable to participate in the decisions that affect their lives. As people of faith we find these negative conditions intolerable. We are challenged and impelled by the prophet AMOS who urges... "See that justice is done."
