Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The audit committee approves the Form 990 in conjunction with their review of the audited financial statements. Upon approval by the committee, a copy is provided to the Board of directors before its filing with the internal revenue service.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The conflict of interest policy specifies procedures to determine if a conflict of interest exists and procedures to eliminate the conflict. Certain employees, committee members, and Board members receive the written policy and acknowledge their receipt, understanding and agreeing with the policies by signing a conflict of interest certificate. Upon identification of a potential conflict of interest, all details relating to the conflict of interest must be disclosed and will be reviewed by the board. The board will vote on a decision in the best interest of the organization and to best address any conflict of interest.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The board of directors and appointed committees review compensation for key employees including the top management and top financial officials. Compensation is evaluated annually by the executive committee of the Board of Directors. The evaluation includes performance review and an analysis of comparable compensation for like positions in similar non-profit organizations in the same region.
