PART IX-A Summary of Direct Charitable Activities
Form 990-PF Part XV

1 Foundation's Charitable Activities by Ms. Jacquelin Cochran (Foundation Project Manager). The Allen Foundation (the "Foundation") was formed on April 25, 2000, for the purpose of providing humanitarian and development aid to individuals in the most desperate areas of the world. To accomplish its charitable purposes, the Foundation began work in Cambodia, a country that has suffered almost unimaginable devastation and poverty for over three decades.

The Foundation's Project Manager, Jacquelin Cochran, holds a degree from Pomona College in Public Policy and Physics and received graduate training through the Energy & Resources Department at the University of California at Berkeley where she specialized in the use of water purification and renewable energy technologies in South-East Asia She also has relevant work experience through her role as a Peace Corps volunteer from 1997 through 1999

2 Joint Venture with Stung Treng Women's Development Center (SWDC). A joint venture in Cambodia's Stung Treng province was undertaken with Stung Treng Women's Development Center (SWDC) to reduce poverty by developing village-based sericulture which will enable local farmers to raise silkworms on mulberry trees, harvest and refine silk locally.

This endeavor was commenced through an agreement dated November 10, 2006 with the total funding commitment from the Foundation being $98,170, $6,000 of which paid in 2006, 50,000 paid in 2007, and $42,170 during 2008. The foundation has also paid $18,320 during 2009.

Between 2002 and 2008 SWDC has directly supported over 400 women, 395 children and 50 men in the impoverished Stung Treng region of Cambodia The SWDC programs now include

Education Program in Literacy and Health
Education Program School Sponsorship
Vocational Training in Traditional Weaving and Sewing
Vocational Training in Carpentry and Building
Vocational training in Sericulture
Support Program in Child Care
Employment at SWDC production center for Mekong Blue
Employment at SWDC café gallery
Employment at SWDC Sericulture program

The February 2009 agreement with SWDC was funded with $18,320. The purpose of the 2009 agreement was to further assist and support the impoverished population served by SWDC through an effort to increase marketing skills, distribution of products and access to new buyers for the products produced through the SWDC silk production and weaving program. The production of the silk employs local people and supports many other aspects of the SWDC project. These silk products are marketed under "Mekong Blue."

The 2009 agreement funding provided for the establishment, launch, promotion and operating of the new store in Phnom Penh. The store was set up in 2009. In 2009 Mekong Blue also launched its first online store in the US.
