Explanation of Amended Return

This return is being amended to reflect the change in revenue being recorded for the tax year. Accordingly, the receivable is also being adjusted to the actual amount.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

The Agency provides services to seniors in southern Columbiana county, including on-site and home-delivered meals, transportation, recreation, socialization and fellowship, as well as assistance with emergency situations. There was a total of 668 people served approximately 29,370 meals.

The Agency has a senior support program that provides concrete assistance to individuals at risk in the community through the provision of counseling and advocacy services. They attempt to ensure that the frail, elderly and disabled of Mahoning, Trumbull, and Columbiana counties who fall under their care are treated with dignity and respect. They have assisted 215 people providing 2754 units of service.

The Agency has an adoption program that helps to place infants for adoption by a family who can give love, care, protection and the opportunities essential for healthy personalities, growth and development. This also includes First Step, a social work program to help young girls who are pregnant and need support and assistance preparing for their child. This program completed 20 adoption searches, and assisted 179 First Step clients.

The Agency assists families in danger of foreclosure of their homes, provides pre and post purchase housing counseling through their Housing Counseling Program. 203 households were assisted.
