To assist in providing elementary and high school level Christian education to children of the Dominican Republic, United States, and abroad. This involves short-term mission trips of American high school students, teachers, and other adults to the Dominican Republic to build buildings, share Christ, and conduct educational seminars. This includes consulting with and grants to deserving organizations. The organization also will aid, assist, and support the fostering of low income housing locally in the United States by consulting on local projects.
