Resources include informational and cultural materials, computers and Internet access, programs and displays. Staff develop collections to meet user needs and assist users in locating and utlizing information.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 548385 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 31626.81)
Our primary line of business is providing materials in print, audio-visual and electronic formats which our patrons use in the library or borrow to use elsewhere to enrich their lives. These encompass everything from very simple easy readers for a child learning to read to complex mathematical and scientific materials for more advanced students. Materials are borrowed to learn new skills or explore an area of interest to the reader. Currently, a big focus is on materials related to job searching and moving into new careers. The majority of the library's staff and activities are devoted to this service. In 2009, the library circulated 567,567 items and accessed information online over 70,000 times. Over 15,000 items were delivered to homebound patrons.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 183334 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 3421.45)
Another primary line of business involves providing assistance for information seekers, a place to do their work and computers with Internet access for public use. While the library's hours of operation were reduced in 2009 due to budget cuts, significant usage of services still occurred. Approximately 184,000 library patrons were in the building and over 35,000 reference questions were answered by staff. Nearly 40,000 people used the library's computers, and nearly that many again used the library's free Wi-Fi with their own computers for Internet access.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 120529 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 150.00)
The library devotes significant resources to offering programs and classes to all ages of our public. These range babytime and toddler-aged storytimes to programs on understanding and choosing Medicare supplements. On occassion, speakers are hired, but programs all primarily prepared and presented by library staff or volunteers from other agencies. Other costs include advertising, overhead and maintenance costs and office supplies related to or used in the program. In 2009, 805 programs were held in the library with 10,360 attendees. Library staff produced or participated in 31 programs in the community with over 4000 attendees.

4d Other program services. (Describe in Schedule O.)

Part VI, Line 11 -- Members of the Board of Trustees received a completed copy of the 990 by email before the July 2010 Board meeting. The form was on the agenda of that meeting for questions and discussion.

Part VI, Line 19 -- All governing documents, policies and financial statements of Madison Public Library are public documents and made available to the public upon request. Public notice of the availability of annual financial statements is made annually in the local newspaper. Much of this information is provided at various times in Library newsletters and on the Library website. Full financial reports are also available through the State of Ohio Auditor's office online as part of the biannual audit reports.

Part V, Line 3b -- The Public Library is a tax-supported government organization not required to file a Form 990-T.

Part VI, Line 12c -- Per the Board Bylaws and the Ohio Revised Code, Board members are required to divulge any conflict of interest and to remove themselves from any vote related to the conflict. Board members and their families may not do business with Madison Public Library.

Part VI, Line 15 -- When the current Executive Director was hired, the Board used the services of search consulting firm which advised the Board on then currently accepted compensation packages. The Board and administration regularly review wage scales and benefits and compare with data from comparably sized and funded institutions in the region.

Part XI, Line 2b -- The Library is audited by the State of Ohio's Auditor every two years. The most recent audit for 2008-2009 was released on 07-20-2010. Rather than a full audit of the financial statements, this year's audit was an "Agreed Upon Procedures" audit. There were no exceptions noted. The next audit in 2012 covering the years 2010 and 2011 will include a full audit of the financial statements. Audits are always reviewed with the Board of Trustees and the Finance Committee.
