THE HOWLAND MEMORIAL FUND

INFORMATION TO APPLICANTS

The Howland Memorial fund is an independent, free-standing, charitable trust created under the Will of Mrs. Mame E. Howland.

The Fund does not make grants or loans to individuals; for conferences or workshops; to organizations which discriminate on the basis of race, sex, creed, age, or national origin. Grants will not be made to organizations who have failed to demonstrate responsible management and who do not have audited financial statements.

A majority of grants are initiated by the Trustees and distributions are made only to tax-exempt organizations.

Written requests will be considered and should be a letter not exceeding two pages. The letter must clearly describe the project or need for a grant. Interviews or meeting regarding requests are impractical, except at the instigation of the Trustees. Each request must be accompanied by a list of current Trustees, a recent audited financial statement, or annual report, and a copy of your Internal Revenue Service Tax Determination Letter; supplemental material might be requested. A majority of grant decisions are made between December 15th and January 1st of each year.

The Howland Memorial Fund makes grants for current operating needs; recipients should not consider the Fund as a source of continuing dependency.

If a grant is made, the Fund may place restrictions on the grant and require accounting, monitoring, and/or progress reports. If a grant is made for a specific project and there are unexpended funds left over, these funds cannot be spent for other uses, without written consent of The Howland Memorial Fund.

The Fund has continued Mrs. Howland's longstanding tradition of quiet giving, preferring no publicity, plaques, or news releases; however, inclusion of The Howland Memorial Fund in a list of supporters is appropriate.

Grant requests or correspondence should be addressed to John V. Frank and Akron Community Foundation, Trustees, 2080 Stockbridge Road, Akron, Ohio 44313.
