Form 990, Part VI, Section B, 12a and 12b - Policies

Programs and grants submitted by committees must be approved by the Board. Vendors are selected by the lowest bid.

By Laws of Geneva Academic Foundation:

Conflict of Interest. All persons either elected or appointed to an office (including but not limited to any Board or Committee), prior to acceptance and during tenure of that position, shall avoid situations and activities where their personal interests could conflict, or reasonable appear to conflict, with interest of the Corporation. A conflict of interest is defined as any situation in which a member's decisions or votes could substantially and directly affect the member's professional, personal, financial or business interests. In the event that a person nominated for or holding an office of the Corporation finds himself or herself in such a position, he or she shall promptly disclose the conflict of interest to the person in charge of the activity (or the next higher authority if the member is in charge) and to the Executive Board of the Corporation and recuse himself or herself at any Board or Committee meeting from any deliberations or vote on the matter giving rise to the conflict of interest.
